LARGE PORTION OF EAST PRUSSIA SHEARED OFF

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press War Editor

The Red army, with vanguards little more than 125 miles from Berlin, has cracked the Oder river line before Breslau, industrial Silesian capital, and in the north apparently has sheared most of East Prussia from the Reich in a drive to the Baltic which isolated huge numbers of Nazi troops.

On the western front, a field dispatch said a new German assault in northeastern Alsace against the U. S. Seventh Army might "signal the start of the final battle for Alsace."

Fall of Breslau appeared imminent as Soviet forces stormed across the Oder in the heart of Silesia to the southeast. By German account,

Armed Forces Face Shortage In Many Lines

Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Forces, Paris, Jan. 25—(AP)—U. S. production of small arms ammunition must be increased 200 per cent over last November to prevent a shortage on the western front. Lt. Gen. Brehon Somervell, chief of the army service forces, said today.

The general said the greatest pressure would have to be placed on production at home to prevent shortages in at least a dozen important items including tires, heavy trucks, cotton duck and large caliber ammunition.

The production of medium and heavy calibre ammunition must be increased 100 per cent over November and production of heavy trucks should go up 25 to 30 per cent.

Sleet and Snow On Italian Front

Rome, Jan. 25—(AP)—Sleet and snow covered the Italian front today, but in spite of the wintry weather patrols were active along both the Fifth and Eighth Army fronts and spirited skirmishes took place at several points.

The action generally, however, was on so small a scale that the discharge of a booby trap by a U. S. raiding party in the vicinity of Monte Cerere south of Bologna rated mention in an official report of the day's operations.

A German night patrol was repulsed in an attack on an Eighth Army strongpoint east of Fosso Vecchio.

The First Army reported considerable less contact with the Germans than yesterday. A German party was repulsed near Monte.

BULLETINS

Washington, Jan. 25—(AP)—Brig. Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe, who retorted with a defiant "nuts" to a German surrender ultimatum at Bastogne, was nominated today for promotion to major general.

Washington, Jan. 25—(AP)—Frank C. Walker was nominated by President Roosevelt today for another term as postmaster general. His is the only cabinet position whose term is fixed by law.

Scranton, Jan. 25—(AP)—Fire, said by authorities to have been caused by an overheated furnace, destroyed the summit motion picture theatre and two large garages in Clarks Summit, near here, this morning. Fourteen automobiles in one of the garages were reduced to ruins and the total fire loss was estimated at $100,000.

London, Jan. 25—(AP)—The Moscow radio said today that "mass unrest has broken out" in Prague, old Czechoslovak capital, and the Germans announced that a state of siege had been clamped on the city.

Washington, Jan. 25—(AP)—"Overwhelming" senate approval of American participation in an international peace preserving organization was predicted today by Foreign Relations Chairman Connally (D-Tex.).

Washington, Jan. 25—(AP)—War Secretary Stimson today announced the assignment of Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell to command of the army ground forces succeeding Lt. Gen. Ben Lear.

Wallace Proposes Probe Of R. F. C. Lending Under Jones

Washington, Jan. 25—(AP)—Contending big versus little business is "the real issue" in control of the government's huge banking powers, Henry A. Wallace today proposed a congressional investigation of RFC lending under Jesse Jones.

The former vice president said that "the real motive" behind a bill to strip the lending authority wielded by Jones away from the commerce secretaryship "has nothing to do with my competence to handle those powers."

If confirmed as secretary of commerce, Wallace made clear, he intends to use the lending authority to assist little business as well as the big companies in a drive for "a free America, which is also a prosperous America" and to carry out President Roosevelt's goal of 60,000,000 post-war jobs.

Wallace testified before the senate commerce committee and a standing-room-only crowd.

Declaring that he is willing to serve as secretary of commerce whether or not the monetary setup is left in that department, Wallace testified that "no soldier on the battlefield can do less than carry out his assignment."

But in making a strong plea for confirmation to head an intact department, Wallace proposed what was regarded as a compromise offer to those who have sought to block approval of him for the post from which President Roosevelt asked Jones' resignation.

Jones, who testified yesterday, had frankly termed Wallace "not qualified" for the combination posts that have been held by the Texan. But Wallace expressed "deep concern" at the move to take the lending authority away from the cabinet job.

He would be "less than frank," Wallace said, if he told the committee that his concern sprang merely from the fact that the separation of authority was proposed.

Reading from a typewritten statement, Wallace said talk of his lack of experience—words used by Jones—"does not fool either me or the American people."

Hitler Defense Strategy Is Thrown Off Balance By Reds

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, Jan. 25—(AP)—Hitler's grand strategy for the prolonged defense of the fortress of Germany possibly has been thrown completely off balance by the terrific impact of the Russian offensive.

This is the opinion of some military authorities here, who are beginning to wonder how long now Germany will be able to hold out under the onslaught.

Estimates that the European war would last until late summer or fall as a result of the German west front offensive in December now are being scrapped. At the moment there is an open-minded attitude on how quickly and in what manner Germany may be defeated.

Defeat could take the form of unconditional surrender by the army high command if the command splits with the Nazi political leadership, or could be evidenced by a fairly rapid breakup of organized resistance with a long period of guerrilla warfare following.

Confronted with the necessity of fighting off attacks on two fronts at once, the Germans launched their December counter-offensive. They hoped to cripple the offensive power of the western Allies, but met with only limited success. The German thrust inflicted heavy damage on some American units and perhaps blocked a threatened offensive move by General Eisenhower. It failed to deal a crippling blow by knocking out the supply port of Antwerp, nor did it cut the Allied supply trunk from France in the vicinity of Namur.

In consequence the Germans must now realize a reborn danger of powerful assault action by Anglo-American forces.

British Bombers Attack Sumatra

By the Associated Press

Tokyo radio reported today that more than 120 British carrier planes attacked the Palembang oil producing area of Sumatra Wednesday while a small U. S. naval task force shelled Iwo Jima on the southern approaches to Japan.

A Japanese imperial communiqué, which did not identify the nationality of the attackers, said 78 of the 120 raiders were shot down and 14 Japanese interceptors failed to return.

All of the Japanese reports were unconfirmed, and all were recorded by the Federal Communications Commission.

A domestic broadcast over Tokyo radio said three aircraft carriers formed the backbone of the Sumatra raiding force, described as part "of the enemy British fleet which is coming in from the Indian ocean." The broadcaster said this was the first time a British naval unit had ventured into the area southwest of Sumatra.

JAPS PAY HIGH TOLL IN CLARK FIELD SIEGE

Ten Nips Killed For Every American After Two Weeks' Campaign For Vital Airfield

BAMBAN RIVER CROSSED

By C. YATES McDANIEL
General MacArthur's Headquarters, Luzon, Jan. 25—(AP)—A swiftly massing weight of 14th Army Corps motorized troops besieged Clark Field's 13 airstrips today after a two weeks' campaign on Luzon in which 10 Japanese were killed for every American.

Manila lies less than 50 airline miles ahead of the south-bound Yank columns, disclosed officially today to have paid the relatively low cost of 657 lives during the first 14 days of their 65-mile drive from Lingayen Gulf. More than 6,000 dead Japanese have been counted.

An intricate maze of more than 30 fortress caves, which the Nipponese spent months building as a major defense belt for Clark Field, littered with scores of wrecked Nipponese bombers and fighters, is in the hands of 40th Division soldiers. Disdainful of willing enemy rearward resistance, little artillery spotter planes landed on the satellite field before the ground troops got there.

The Bamban river, where the enemy could have put up a delaying fight, has been crossed.

The town of Bamban has been seized and the town of Mababac, last one before Clark Field, has been reached in a 10-mile push from Capas which has carried into Pampanga province, long referred to as "the gateway to Manila."

As long ago as Wednesday morning, the latest period covered in today's communiqué, motorized units of Maj. Gen. Oscar W. Griswold's corps were on the borders of Clark Field and Fort Stotsenburg.

Maj. Gen. Rapp Brush's 40th Division entered the town of Bamban, a little over four miles southwest of Capas, Tuesday, finding the Japanese had laid waste to it and left behind a rear guard. This force had to be ousted in a street-by-street fight and flushed from pillboxes, Fred Hampson reported in an Associated Press field dispatch.

But in ridges west of the town, where the Japanese had counted on exacting a terrific toll of American lives, a network of painstakingly-constructed defenses was abandoned.

Mother and Five Children Die In Blaze

Wayne Junction, Jan. 25—(AP)—A mother and her five children were burned to death today in a fire that roared through their row house here.

The dead were Mrs. Mildred Moyer, 40; Mary, 17; Jane, 11; Harry, 9, and James, 4, and Mildred, one. Firemen said they apparently had no chance to escape.

The father, Harry, 41, summoned from his post as a Reading Company Railroad brakeman, arrived as the charred bodies were being carried out. His voice broke as he gave firemen the victim's names.

The fire was first noticed about 6:30 a. m. by two passersby who saw smoke pouring from a bedroom window. One hurled a stone through a window, hoping to let in air. Immediately, he said, a streak of flame shot out almost 15 feet.

Cause of the blaze was not determined.

PROP WASH PREVENTS LANDING IN GERMANY

A U. S. Bomber Station in England, Jan. 25—(AP)—Sgt. John Caravello, Route 3, Tamaqua, Pa., says that prop wash from American fighter planes prevented his becoming a German prisoner after he bailed out of a crippled Flying Fortress.

Caravello said he and another gunner drifted helplessly over German territory until two Mustang escort planes started a series of loops, power dives and circles around them. The wash from the propellers, pushed the chutes back over American territory.

Pennsylvania Shivers In One Of Coldest Spells of Winter; Little Relief Is Promised

By the Associated Press

Frigid winds from the west drove temperatures to sub-zero levels in many parts of Pennsylvania today as citizens shivered in one of the coldest spells of the winter.

In the northwest, Kane reported an official reading of 28 below zero and St. Marys, in Elk county, had 26 below. Clarion had 20 below and Seaward, in Westmoreland county, reported 24 below.

The weatherman promised little relief, predicting continued cold for today and tomorrow.

Mountainous drifts clogged numerous secondary roads and kept highway crews working feverishly to clear the main arteries of traffic.

Route 22, the principal east-west highway between Harrisburg and New York, was closed by state police last night as being too dangerous for travel. All bus service between Harrisburg and the east was discontinued because of snow in the eastern sections.

The biting wind whipped fallen snow into dense clouds which blinded motorists and at Bradford yesterday caused a Greyhound bus to crash into a snow pile, injuring 11 persons, six of them seriously.

Many rural schools were closed because of the blocked roads. At Titusville, high school students from outlying sections were forced to sleep in town last night because their bus was unable to negotiate impassable highways.

Guests swept the Allentown area at a 60-mile-an-hour clip last night, closing the highway between Neffs and Slatington. Wayne county also reported a 60-mile-an-hour gale.

Northwestern Pennsylvania was hard hit by the snowstorm, some sections claiming it worse than the December storm because of the high wind velocity. Kane reported its worst blizzard of the winter yesterday when six inches of snow fell.

Service Bill Approved By House Group

Washington, Jan. 25—(AP)—The argument that fighting armies need help now accompanied a house military committee recommendation today for prompt action on national service legislation.

Shortages of war material are "real and immediate," the committee said in sending to the house floor a bill to require every man between 18 and 45 to work where he is needed under threat of induction, fine or imprisonment.

The committee completed action on the legislation late yesterday after two weeks of consideration, and, in a last minute move for harmony, eliminated on a close vote an "anti-closed shop" amendment vigorously opposed by organized labor.

The rejected amendment would have permitted a registrant to work in a union shop without joining a union, if his draft board told him to go there. Instead the committee wrote in a provision requiring local draft boards to give a man "a reasonable choice of employers for whom to work."

It left in the hands of the director of war mobilization, or someone designated by him, the authority to determine what are essential occupations. But it confined to draft boards the power to tell a man to stay in his present job or move into one where his services are needed.

A registrant complying with a board order was voted benefits of the soldiers and sailors civil relief act and the same reemployment priority guaranteed a drafted man under the selective service law.

Loss of American Troopship Listed

Washington, Jan. 25—(AP)—An American troop ship carrying more than 2,200 soldiers was sunk recently in European waters as a result of enemy action with the loss of 248 dead and 517 missing.

Secretary of War Stimson made the announcement at his news conference today.

The remainder of the troops aboard, more than 1,400, were saved, Stimson said.

Soldier From Sheffield Dies In Australia

Word is received here that Mrs. Girdon McKillip, of Washington, D. C., formerly of Sheffield, has been advised by the War Department that her son, Sgt. Girdon McKillip, Jr., died at Mackay, Queensland, Australia, on January 19 of malaria.

Besides his mother, he leaves his wife, the former Ethna Lingren, of Sheffield.

Sgt. McKillip was born in Sheffield September 30, 1911, and attended public schools there. After his graduation from the High School in 1929, he attended Bliss Electrical School in Washington, D. C., and the Curtiss-Wright School at Valley Stream, Long Island. He was a member of the Sheffield Methodist church and was employed by the Pennsylvania Bottle Works before entering service.

He enlisted in the Air Corps October 4, 1942, and had his preliminary training at Middletown, later going to Selfridge Field, Mich., and Wendover Field, Utah. He went overseas in July, 1943, and was attached to the 7th Airborne Squadron in the South Pacific.

The plane, carrying the embassy party of nine and two pilots, took off from the Mexico City airport and crashed within 500 yards of the runway as it was trying to gain altitude.

Early has been asked, and has agreed, to go to supreme Allied headquarters in Europe to look over press relations there. He expects to be gone for weeks.

During his absence, Daniels will answer queries and issue statements for the press. Early hopes things will go so smoothly that Daniels can keep right on after the European mission ends.

Early is not keeping it secret that he would like to give up the $10,000 a year job as presidential secretary and take one or more of several private offers that would pay considerably more.

Former Editor Being Coached For White House Spokesman

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Washington, Jan. 25—(AP)—The White House is coaching Jonathan Daniels, former editor and author, as a successor to Presidential Secretary Stephen Early.

If the change is made, Daniels will handle President Roosevelt's press relations and Early will step out into private employment.

Daniels now is one of five administrative assistants to the chief executive—those aides whose main qualification is supported to be "a passion for anonymity." Before coming to the White House, he was assistant director of civilian defense.

MAY SIGNAL FINAL BATTLE FOR ALSACE

Germans Launch Attack on 20-Mile Front From Haguenau Northwest to Vosges Mountains

MODER RIVER CROSSED

By EDWARD KENNEDY
Paris, Jan. 25—(AP)—The Germans launched an attack today against the U. S. 7th Army along a 20-mile front from Haguenau northwest to the lower Vosges mountains, and at places crossed the Moder river 15 miles inside France.

Gen. Hermann Balck opened the drive with a heavy artillery and mortar barrage, while other Germans to the north were continuing a great eastward exodus from the Ardennes salient. Roads and rails were so littered in the north that the Germans resorted to routes in the center.

The First and Third armies captured nine more towns in the Ardennes salient, now reduced to about 120 square miles. The British Second Army to the north captured four more just west of the Roer river and moved to within 30 miles of Dusseldorf and three of Roermond.

But in Alsace, large German forces began crossing the Moder river line, which Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's 7th Army had taken up after withdrawing from the Hatten area north of the strategic Haguenau forest.

Further northwest and about two miles north of the Moder, the Germans attacked in the Bischholz-Mulhausen area 15 miles south of the Palatinate. Farther into the snowy Vosges, the enemy threw strong blows at Reipertswiller, eight miles southeast of Bitch.

Other Germans snapped back in southern Alsace below Strassburg and made strong counterattacks against French troops on both the northern and southern flanks of the Colmar-Mulhouse pocket. The Germans were within 10 miles south and 11 north of Strassburg, the prized capital of Alsace which the French and Germans both claim as their own.

The British Second Army drove deeper into the heavily fortified zone just west of the Roer river, capturing Ueterrath, Heinsberg, Schleiden and Weerd. Heinsberg is (Turn to Page Nine)

Soviet Envoy To Mexico Is Killed

Mexico City, Jan. 25—(AP)—Soviet Ambassador Constantine Oumansky, his wife and two members of his staff were killed today in the crash of a Mexican airforce plane near this city.

A number of other passengers were reported by aviation officials to have been killed and some injured but an exact casualty list was withheld pending an official report to military headquarters.

The ambassador, Mrs. Oumansky and his staff were leaving for Costa Rica, to which country Oumansky is accredited as minister. He was to present his credentials there.

The plane, carrying the embassy party of nine and two pilots, took off from the Mexico City airport and crashed within 500 yards of the runway as it was trying to gain altitude.

Early has been asked, and has agreed, to go to supreme Allied headquarters in Europe to look over press relations there. He expects to be gone for weeks.

Rehearsal For Floor Show At Beatty Tonight

All of the young people who are participating in either the community party floor show or auditorium show are asked to be in the Beatty school auditorium at eight o'clock for this evening's dress rehearsal. Five acts have been booked for each of the shows and promise to give an entertaining evening for the young people on Saturday night at the teen to twenty one community young people's party in Beatty school.

John Erickson, Louis Chimenti, and David Brown have charge of the first auditorium show which has been planned for the community party. Charles Brown and Dick Blair are sharing master of ceremonies' honors for the floor show.

Another new feature at Saturday night's party will be two orchestras alternating to furnish music for the dancing. There will also be ice skating with music on the court all evening. The refreshment committee is planning to serve both hot and cold drinks, sandwiches, doughnuts and potato chips. There will be dancing from 8:30 to 11:30, games and continuous entertainment in the auditorium. The floor show is scheduled for ten o'clock.

CAP Aiding In WAC Sign-up

Announcement is made today that Kathleen Simmons has been appointed director of WAC recruiting for Squadron 53, Civil Air Patrol of Pennsylvania, and has been promoted to the grade of corporal in the CAP.

The CAP office on the fifth floor of the Warren National Bank building is open each Friday evening from eight until nine o'clock and any persons interested in obtaining further information concerning the Women's Army Corps is welcome to call there.

There is increasing need for WAC recruits, particularly for training as surgical technicians, and local women and girls eligible for this branch of service are urged to respond in this emergency.

In the first 90 days of the invasion of Europe, the Army issued 125 million maps.

Refreshments For Skaters Again Tonight

There will be hot chocolate and doughnuts again this evening for the ice skaters on Beatty court. The young people enjoyed the refreshments served on Tuesday evening, so the Community Recreation refreshments committee is planning to be at the school certain nights each week.

On Tuesday evening JoAnn Phillips, chairman was assisted by Geraldine Nero, Jean Zeiders, Carol Phillips, Helen Hathaway, Marie Kammerer, Teresa Fino, Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. Downey and Mrs. Mathyer.

The court was flooded again twice last evening and several times today. The drop in temperature has given the ice maintenance committee a good opportunity to build up the ice. Boys taking care of the flooding today were Jimmy Lawson, Tom Bean, Elmer Mellander, Dick Bean and Ben Newmaker. Those who assisted Jimmy last evening were Clifford Maze, Joe Walters, Dwight Carlson, Ray Berdine,

Tom Bean, and Jimmy Dunkle. There will be music again this evening for the skaters.

Times Topics

NO EXTENSION YET

February 1st, is the deadline for the securing of the new motor drivers license and as yet no extension of time for the use of the new licenses has been announced.

DOG LICENSES HERE

County Treasurer Simonsen has received a consignment of dog licenses and owners of dogs are warned they had better "come and get 'em".

CHILD AT AUNTS

A small girl from the East Side caused her parents some apprehension last night when she did not come home from school. Police were notified and finally located her at the home of an aunt.

PLEADED GUILTY

Robert Nelson was arrested by State Police last night at a home in Starbrick where he was creating trouble. Charged with disorderly conduct he entered a plea of guilty this morning when arraigned before Magistrate Greenlund. A fine of $10 and costs was assessed.

CHIMNEY PLUGGED UP

The chimney in the house at 411 Lincoln avenue became plugged with soot this morning and the house was filled with smoke. The emergency truck from the Central station responded and cleaned out the smoke ring and the trouble was ended. The only damage done was to clothing of the firemen.

PAID FINE AND COSTS

Fred Sechrist, caretaker of the Marconi Outing Club, arrested on a charge of possessing gambling devices, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Tracy Greenlund yesterday afternoon. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined $14 and costs, or $21.50 in all. This was paid.

CERTIFICATES AWARDED

The Pennsylvania Dept. of Forests and Waters takes pleasure in announcing the award of a twenty five year Forest Fire Warden Certificate to Linn Atkins of Big Bend and a Ten Year Certificate to L. B. Dole of Sheffield. These awards represent years of faithful service in behalf of the forests of Warren county and other sections of this district.

SHORTAGE IS KEEN

The cigarette shortage in Warren this week is marked. Many of the dealers only were given about half of their usual supply and the machines and "stoops" have been effectually cleared of anything that looks like a smoke. There also is a shortage of "rolling material" and even the boys who can twist a cigarette are having trouble getting a supply of tobacco. Smokes are bringing fancy prices and it has developed into a case of pay the money or go without in many places.

There will be music again this evening for the skaters.

Obituary

Unless otherwise stated, visiting hours at Warren funeral homes are from 10 a. m. to 12; 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m.

ARLENE M. NELSON

Funeral services in memory of Arlene M. Nelson were held at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Claude Phillips, North Warren, with Rev. J. H. Cruickshank, minister of North Warren Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment was made in Oakland cemetery with the following acting as bearers: Arthur Lee, Arthur Peterson, Robert Main, Chester Sampson, Perry Thelma and Edward Stevens. Attending the rites from away were Victoria Lund, Ripley, N. Y.; Sidney Carlson, Rochester, N. Y.; Marion Carlson, Hornell, N. Y.; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nelson, Jamestown, N. Y.

Route 6 Home Damaged By Small Blaze

The farm home owned by Claude Baccus and occupied by the family of Herbert Wade, just east of Baccus Corners on Route 6, several miles east of Columbus, came very near being destroyed by fire early Tuesday night but was saved by the work of Mr. Wade, other members of the household and Mr. Baccus.

At 9:45 a call was sent to Corry for assistance from the city fire department but because of the prevailing storm it was not believed the truck could reach the scene in time to be of service. A few minutes later word was phoned from the Baccus home that the fire on the neighboring property had been brought under control.

The home had recently been equipped with a new chimney but the fire appeared to start near the flue in the upper part of the house. Mr. Wade lost no time in chopping away adjacent material and a bucket brigade was soon in action with the result that the blaze was brought under control and prevented from spreading throughout the building. The loss will be moderate, it was said today, although some quite extensive repairs will be necessary and some further damage was caused to the furnishings by water and smoke.

Coldest Night of the Winter Follows Wednesday Blizzard

Wednesday's blizzard, which swirled snow into drifts on highways and streets and gave employees of the highway and street departments hard work, was followed by a drop in the mercury that registered the lowest averages of the year. As usual, Arch Blowers from his mountain fastness on the Beaty lease on Morrison Run takes the electric cooled thermometer with a reading of 32 below at 6 a. m. and 30 below at 8 a. m.

"Doc" Jordan came through with a reading of nine below on the U. S. official thermometer at his home on the South Side. This thermometer, like all government instruments, is enclosed in a latched box. C. T. Conarro reported 18 below on his registering thermometer on Laurel street. Devere Kibberger had 12 below when he turned out at 8 on Poplar street; the Pennsylvania Gas Company showed 15 below at 6 a. m. and 10 below at 8 o'clock; at Clarendon, 22 below was registered, while in Russell, Sheffield and Starbrick 20 below was reported.

Hours of heavy work with plows and trucks was required by highway employees to keep the roads open yesterday and last night, when the heavy winds swept huge drifts along the roads. In this county good work was done and the roads were kept passable, but all buses were running late and this morning the Northern Express was two hours and forty-five minutes late.

Pipes were reported frozen about the town and the plumbing establishments were swamped due to the shortage of men.

Garages were kept busy getting cars started this morning and scores of the machines refused to start when the owners went to their garages. Many had frozen radiators and some were badly damaged. With the inspection period closing next Wednesday, the damage done this morning will keep many machines off the road.

It is keeping the "oldest inhabitant" busy endeavoring to match the run of cold weather which has been experienced during the past few weeks. Not in many years has there been such a long-continued cold spell accompanied by so much snow.

Times Topics

HOLIDAYS

Students in the High School and Beaty Building started a two-day vacation today following the culmination of the first semester. All final examinations were given during the week and classes will resume Monday.

PUBLIC HEALTH DAY

Nutritional literature is being placed on display at the A&P Store and Loblaw's and may be had by the public free of charge on Public Health Nursing Day, which is to be observed throughout the nation on Friday, January 26.

LICENSES FOR JUKEBOXES

The Meadville Council has passed an ordinance fixing a license fee of $50 per year for each juke box operated in the city. The fee will not only give the city some added revenue but give the authorities control over the machines.

OFFICIALS' TEST

Football and Basketball officials are reminded that examinations will be given at the high school this evening by the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association. Those who did not take test on November 30 and all others are requested to take the test.

VETERANS WON MATCH

Another in the series of inter-club cribbage matches was played at the Veterans Club last evening between teams of the Moose and Vets. The Veterans won the match by a score of 56 to 52. The Moose team is arranging to play the Jamestown Moose a match one week from Sunday.

GOLD STAR FLAGS

The Supreme Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose has arranged for the presentation of a handsome Gold Star flag to the families of all members of the order who are killed in action. Arrangements for the flags can be made with the secretary of the local lodge, Walter E. Kiser.

REQUIRES REAL WORK

One of the bitterest fights waged against the drifting snow and the ice that forms has been underway at the parking lot of the Marconi Club. Since the snowfall started it has been a constant battle to keep the lot open and the approach to the club in shape for driving. Much work is required every day but so far the employees of the club have been able to keep ahead of the weatherman and keep the lot in good shape.

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY

William K. Dimick, of Buffalo, who was employed at the State Hospital some months ago as an attendant, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Greenlund on Wednesday afternoon on a charge of burglary of an automobile. He entered a plea of guilty and was held for quarter sessions court. Dimick was already in the hands of the law for the robbery of the Knorr Service Station at Venturatown. The theft for which he was held yesterday was committed last November, when he entered a car owned by John Wade Cyphert, another attendant at the State Hospital, and stole a tarpaulin. The theft took place on the hospital grounds.

thermometer dropped to 22 degrees below zero at the Crooks place.

Mr. Raymond Colburn was in Randolph, N. Y., recently, returning to his home on Wednesday evening.

Miss Lucy Mae Holsinger was a recent overnight guest of her sister, Mrs. Harry Crandall of Bradford.

Mr. Raymond Cobb was in Erie last Wednesday to take his physical examination for the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Seagren and family moved to Bradford during the weekend. The Seagren house is soon to be occupied by Mrs. Falerico and son, Bennie, of Bradford.

Mr. Edward Holzworth of Bolivar Run, health officer of McKean county was a business visitor here on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Guy Crooks was a Bradford visitor on Wednesday.

Tomnie Cobb has recovered from his recent illness.

Lucy Mae Holsinger, Ethel Coy, Laura Jean Coy and David Crooks attended a party and sleighride last Friday evening held at the home of Miss Celeste Van Sickle of Corydon.

Local relatives here received word that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Uller of Titusville are spending the winter in Los Angeles, Calif., with their son, Charles.

Pfc. Phillip Deweyer is spending a furlough with his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deweyer. Mrs. Deweyer and daughter Nancy are with her husband at the home of his parents.

Charles and Clarence Smith were in Bradford yesterday.

SIEGFRIED

There has been special interest in the so-called Siegfried Line, mentioned daily in Associated Press dispatches in the Times-Mirror, for traditional and artistic as well as military reasons. For the Germans, and also for large numbers of Americans, that region along the lower Rhine has long been classic ground. It is the birthplace of the famous medieval epic, the Nibelungenlied, which in modern times has been raised to musical fame by the Wagnerian operas.

Siegfried and his exploits are, of course, mythical. There may have been a hero of that name, just as there may have been real persons engaged in the famous Trojan wars of the ancient Greeks. But as far as actual evidence is concerned, there appears to be nothing but mythology—legends from long ago passed down through successive generations by old men, or by poets and troubadours who were the entertainers of their times.

Whether fact or fiction, it would be far more pleasant to be dealing today with those old legends and songs than with the stern subject-matter of a great modern war. But there has been danger even in those mythological traditions and songs, for they have helped turn the heads of modern Germans, whose leaders have turned their meaning and purpose upside down.

CAN YOU LAUGH AT YOURSELF?

One of the greatest of all gifts vouchsafed to the human race is the sense of humor. It makes life joyous, minimizes sorrows, and changes existence from a penance and a peril into something to enjoy, says Ross Byron in a current magazine.

A sense of humor is more than the ability or the tendency to pass wise-cracks at the expense of others, which is a definite hindrance to personality and not an aid. It is really a sense of proportion—the highest development or ability of mind.

A man or woman with a sense of humor doesn't get upset when things take a wrong turn. He or she doesn't take himself or herself too seriously, knowing that there is really nothing extraordinarily important in any phase of human life. He or she has a fine sense of values.

The basis of a sense of humor is intelligence—a knowledge of the world and its inhabitants. A person ignorant of human affairs has no sense of humor, because he will have superstition, prejudice and bigotry in its place. But one who knows life, one who has a sense of values, one who has developed intelligence, that person will have a sense of humor.

Can you laugh at yourself as readily as at others? If you can, you are safe. If you can't, watch out—you are really on dangerous ground so far as having a pleasing personality is concerned.

ON FEEDING THE BIRDS

Anonymous communications are usually consigned to the wastepaper basket, but here's one arriving today that justifies a little different treatment because of the appeal it contains in behalf of our feathered friends who have been deprived of their source of food supply due to the fact that the ground has been blanketed with snow for the past two months:

"Editor: A small editorial as below might serve a humane purpose during this heavy winter weather:

"Having nailed a chunk of suet to a tree in the yard near my home, I have enjoyed the heart-comfort to observe birds feeding on it in these frigid, snow-bound, blizzard days when they could not possibly find food because of the heavy blanket of snow.

"If more people would take note of this present distress of local wild life and would thoughtfully place some food where they could reach it, they, too, might get a kick out of it.—Subscriber."

The great Red offensive by hastening the end of the European war—as it obviously is doing—is piling up pressing political problems for the big three, and one of these has to do with the turbulent Balkans where several thrones are rocking in a strong wind which blows from off the Russian steppes.

There is only one choice for a real American—back up the folks in the service! Otherwise you let them down!

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

The kings came and fought, then fought the kings of Canaan in Taanach by the waters of Magiddo; they took no gain of money.—Judges 5:19.

And by a prudent flight and cunning save
A life, which valour could not, from the grave.
A better buckler I can soon regain;
But who can get another life again?
—Archilochus (in Plutarch).

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

In 1925
Miss Viola Highhouse took first place and her sister, Miss Katherine, took second place in the girls' ice skating performance at Celoron Park. Some of the country's best skaters participated.

At a meeting of the school board, plans were made to have a public vote at which time a proposition will be submitted to citizens of Warren to ratify a bond issue of $400,000 for the erection of a junior high school.

Workmen started to lay the new floor covering in the street railway station and have over half of it completed. When completed the waiting room will be twice its original size.

The gas companies of Warren have completed their meter readings and have announced that there was little increase despite the cold weather conditions.

In 1935

Carl Johnson, prominent plywood manufacturer of Oslo, Norway, was a guest of R. Z. Morrison and inspected the plant of the Warren Veneer and Panel Works. He is the husband of Madame Flagstaff, well-known singer in Europe and America.

A large crowd is expected to witness the shearing of an angora rabbit at the Warren County Poultry show in the former Conservatory building. The wool will also be carded and spun.

Terrence R. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald P. Martin, Pennsylvania Avenue, has been installed into the Phi Mu Alpha musical fraternity at the Pennsylvania State College.

Ernest Martin, Torpedo, J. R. Miller, Lander, and Ellis Martin, Torpedo, were among those who received awards at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show being held in Harrisburg.

LOCAL WOMEN GET THOUSANDS OF EXTRA RED POINTS

Every day, precious red points are being paid to housewives who turn in used fats to their butchers. Because this country is faced with a possible fat shortage, these used kitchen fats are even more urgently needed to make medicines, synthetic rubber, gunpowder, soaps, paints and a hundred other essentials on the battlefield and home front.

Every woman can help towards final Victory by saving every drop of used fats each time she cooks. Even a spoonful is worth salvaging. Won't you keep saving until final Victory over both Germany and Japan?

Honors Paid Special Honor War Prisoner Accorded Five Sgt. Hawley Serving 29th

Edgar E. Hawley, 225 Watson Place, who is still confined to Warren General Hospital after weeks of illness, has received from the office of the adjutant general word of special honor paid his son, S/Sgt. Mone E. Hawley, who is a German prisoner of war.

The letter from Brig. Gen. Robert H. Dunlop is as follows:

"My Dear Mr. Hawley:

"I have the honor to inform you that, by direction of the President, the Air Medal and four Oak Leaf Clusters, representing four additional awards of the same decoration, have been awarded to your son, Staff Sergeant Mone E. Hawley, Air Corps. The citations are as follows:

"Air Medal and one Oak Leaf Cluster—In recognition of meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flights against the enemy in the Middle East Theatre and for participating in nine sorties of more than two and one-half hours, and two sorties of less than two and one-half hours.

"Three Oak Leaf Clusters to Air Medal—For meritorious achievement while participating in sixteen sorties against the enemy.

"Since these awards cannot be formally presented to your son at this time, the decorations will be presented to you. The Air Medal and four Oak Leaf Clusters will be forwarded to the Commanding General, Third Service Command, Baltimore, Maryland, who will select an officer to make the presentation. The officer selected will communicate with you concerning your wishes in the matter. Sincerely yours, (Signed) Robert H. Dunlop."

War Prisoner Writes Home

Mrs. Ross J. Morell, 52 Clark street, has received within the past week a card and two letters, all dated in August of last year, from her husband, S/Sgt. Morell, who is a German prisoner of war.

The Flying Fortress on which he was a radio operator was shot down over Berlin August 6.

Since leaving this country last June, he had recorded 17 missions to his credit and was awarded the Air Medal and an Oak Leaf Cluster in lieu of a second such decoration.

He writes that he is well and mentions that the Red Cross is doing a great deal for the prisoners.

S/Sgt. Morell is the son of Mrs. Frances Morell, now living in Bradford.

Cpl. Blair Is With the 15th

According to advices arriving from the 15th AAF headquarters in Italy, Cpl. Lawrence F. Blair, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blair, of Clarendon, and husband of Edith Z. Blair, Warren RD 3, has been assigned to a B-24 Liberator heavy bombardment group in Italy, to serve as waist gunner.

Educated at Warren High School, Blair received his gunnery training at Laredo, Texas. He entered the army October 13, 1943, and arrived in Italy in November, 1944. In civilian life he was employed by Struthers-Wells.

The unit to which he is now attached has been twice cited by the War Department for outstanding performances in the Mediterranean theatre of operations.

Headquarters of the Army Service Forces Training Center at Camp Barkeley, Texas, announces the promotion of Richard J. Aherne, Co. D, 59th Medical Training Battalion, to the grade of corporal. His home is Sugar Grove, RD 4.

PAK Activities Are Scheduled At Episcopal Church

Sunday evening activities for members and friends of the PAK, jointly sponsored by the First Presbyterian and Trinity Memorial churches, will all be held at the Episcopal church next Sunday.

The PAK Westminster Choristers will rehearse at 4:30 p. m. under the direction of Jackson Barrell and Ethel McCray. Supper will be served at 6:10 to all attending the evening service, by a committee of Episcopal women. The religious service will be held in the church sanctuary at 6:45 under the direction of Rector Beecher M. Rutledge.

Last Sunday at the First Presbyterian church, Richard Swick and Yvonne Miller conducted the worship service which preceded the presentation of a sound motion picture, "Who Is My Neighbor?" based on the story of the Good Samaritan.

County Holiness Association Has Its First Session

At a special meeting held in the Free Methodist church at Youngsville, the group formed a new religious unit to be known as the Warren County Holiness Association and elected the following to serve as its officers:

President, Rev. G. G. Burke, Youngsville; vice president, Rev. L. W. Drury, Warren; secretary, Rev. V. V. Van Derlin, Pittsfield; treasurer, Rev. H. H. Atkins, Chancellors Valley; Russell Baldwin, Falconer, N. Y.; Spencer Conklin, Warren, and Frank Hendrickson, Youngsville.

The first session was held in the afternoon with a devotional service and a Rev. Cecil Clifton, of Apollo, director of the Family Altar program, leading the singing and bringing a special message in song.

Following prayer, Rev. Burke, acting chairman, directed the discussion of the new organization and the adoption of a name and election which followed.

In the evening service, Mr. Burke lead the singing and Mr. Atkins brought another message in song, Rev. H. C. Van Warner, president of Allegheny Wesleyan Methodist Conference, brought a stirring message based on Romans 8:20. In closing, he invited all to join in prayer about the altar.

Carnahan-Falconer Rites Announced

Alice Falconer, daughter of J. W. Falconer, of Sugar Grove, RD 3, and Albert W. Carnahan, seaman first class in the U. S. Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Carnahan, of Rimersburg, were united in marriage at 3 p. m. Monday, January 8, at the Methodist parsonage in Rimersburg, Rev. Elroy Sayers performing the single ring ceremony.

Clara Belle Carnahan, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and Eugene Eyc, of Strattonville, was best man. The bride wore a frock of royal blue accessories and a shoulder corsage of American beauty roses and chrysanthemums. The maid of honor wore black accessories with a blue ensemble and had a shoulder corsage which matched the bride's.

A wedding dinner was served at six o'clock at the Carnahan home, a miniature bridal couple topping the three-tiered wedding cake which centered the bride's table.

The bride was graduated from Union High School at Rimersburg in the Class of 1943 and expects to continue her work with the Warren Lamp Company.

Seaman Carnahan attended high school in Rimersburg before his enlistment in the coast guard. He has just returned after 26 months of overseas service and returned January 16 to the coast guard base at Cleveland, O.

WOMEN OF MOOSE ENJOY PROGRAM

Warren Chapter, Women of the Moose, held its regular meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday, with Senior Regent Augusta Anderson presiding. Because of bad weather conditions, the visitor from Bradford was unable to make the trip last evening and advised the chapter she will come later. Three candidates were initiated to the credit of the friendship chairman, Bertha Sweeting. The attendance prize was awarded to Ruby Dyer and the next meeting was announced for February 7, with Mary McDonald in charge of supper.

For her chapter night program, Mrs. Sweeting presented a recitation by Mabel Crimpenshaw; reading by Grace Miller, outlining the meaning and qualifications of the friendship degree; humorous musical numbers by Mrs. Crimpenshaw; group singing of old familiar tunes. Concluding, her committee served refreshments.

Rent Boosts Must Be Oked By Area Board

More rent increases have been authorized landlords who have substantially increased the services, furnishings or equipment in their rental properties than the total authorized under the 12 other adjustment provisions in OPA's Rent Regulations, Frank S. Anderson, Area Rent Director of the Erie and Warren County Defense-Rental Area announced today.

In processing the large volume of petitions under this provision, Anderson stated, it was found that misunderstanding existed among some of the landlords petitioning. Cases were found where a landlord had made an increase in the services or furnishings and immediately raised the rent before filing a petition requesting authorization of the increase. The petition must be filed and approval of the request increase given by OPA before the landlord can increase his rent.

"In many of the cases where a landlord has raised the rent before getting OPA's authorization," Mr. Anderson said, "the grounds on which he raised the rent were perfectly all right. I just want to make it clear that such a procedure is putting the cart before the horse. OPA must approve the rent increases before the landlord can charge it to his tenant."

"It is for the landlord's own protection as well that he secure approval of the increase before charging it to the tenant. Without that approval, he is subject to the penalties provided in the Emergency Price Control Act."

As an example of a substantial increase in services, Anderson cited the following. If a landlord since the maximum rent date took over the heating of a structure where before the tenant supplied the heat, that would entitle the landlord to ask OPA for an increase. Another would be where the landlord provides a garage where such was not previously furnished tenant.

Where such an increase is made, Anderson added, the landlord must have the consent of the tenant in occupancy to the increase, unless it is found that such an increase is necessary for the preservation or maintenance of the accommodations, or is required for the operation of a multiple dwelling structure or other structure of which the accommodations are a part.

"Death March" Survivor Has Some Harrowing Experiences

By SPENCER DAVIS

U. S. Bomber Wing Headquarters, Northern Luzon, Jan. 25.—(E)—Haggard, footsore and hungry for American chow, the first survivor from the Bataan "Death March" to join his invading fellow countrymen on Luzon rested today after hiding from Japanese and living on rice for nearly three years.

He was Corp. Gerald G. Wade of Lewiston, Idaho, an army air corps mechanic. He passed through the American lines at an undisclosed point and was brought here by plane.

"It's too good to be true," Wade declared, as he stamped his feet, in borrowed shoes, on the steel matting of the airstrip.

The shoes and a bad stone bruise made him limp. He was chalky faced from malnutrition. He looked 15 years older than his 25 years. But he was happy—and hungry.

Wade told how he and other prisoners who were surrendered to the Japanese at Bataan, on southern Luzon, April 9, 1942, were mistreated and made to march 85 miles north to a prison camp.

"They laughed and jeered at us," he said. "Some of them bashed us on the heads with poles as they drove by in trucks."

"They reminded me of underdogs who finally had got the upper hand and didn't know how to act."

(An official account of the "death march," based on reports of survivors who escaped and made their way to the United States was given in a joint army-navy statement issued Jan. 27, 1944.)

Wade said all he had to eat was a rice cake slipped into his hand by a Filipino boy. "The Japs," he added, "opened our C rations and ate the sugar and chocolate and tossed the rest away. They would not allow us to pick it up."

"I've been living on rice for nearly three years," he commented, "and it gives you an appetite."

He devoured one meal of beef hash, potatoes, green beans and canned fruit and then finished a second of fried ham with four eggs, six buns, milk and chocolate bars.

"The third day after the surrender was the worst of all," Wade said. "We were forced to march 132 steps a minute while the sun was beating down on us and the sweat rolling down until our clothes were soaking wet. Again we had no food nor water."

Japanese officers who enjoyed talking in English told Wade with sadistic glee, "Americans have good autos, good machines, but no fighting spirit. They have too much girls, too much parties."

"We chewed sugar cane," the corporal said. "It kept a lot of us going."

The Americans were loaded in small gauge freight cars until there was no longer room to breathe and hauled to Odneel where a concentration camp was being prepared.

"I got out early from Odneel," Wade said. "There were only three lookout towers then and for some season the water supply failed. Americans were sent out to fill cans of water. One day the radio operator—call him Gilbert—and I of Starbuck, and Mrs. Oscar Bergman of Youngsville, a few days last week.

Mrs. Sigvard Anderson has arrived from Liberal, Kan., and has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Nelson and is now visiting relatives in Jamestown. Her husband has left for overseas.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Falconer, Know you folks back home worry about your loved ones over here. I thought it might help you enjoy your Christmas to know your son is in good health and a credit to the service. May you have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Sincerely, Leonard B. Whiting, 1st Lieut., F. A.

Their son, Raymond, is in this company and received this belated Christmas greeting only last week.

were sent for water outside the barbed wire fence which was still being constructed. We dumped the cans and took off in broad daylight.

"I had been one of the few to escape malaria at Bataan but now it came. Some Filipinos helped carry me to a town where a Guerrilla doctor could give me medicine."

"Then the Guerrillas took us back to their own barrio. Gilbert left me there for dead. I don't blame him. I would have done the same thing."

Wade said he was then taken to another barrio, which was one of the headquarters for the peoples' anti-Japanese army.

He lived with a family there for four months and then went into the mountains where he heard 80 Americans were living in a camp. But when he reached the camp he found most of the food was gone. So he roamed the hills and then returned to the village and lived for another year in the lowlands.

He learned his friend was killed by Ganaps, a pro-Japanese Filipino party.

Again he wandered through Pampanga province into Bulugan flatlands, and retraced his careful steps into the rugged Sambales mountains. There was no rest and little food. He kept moving.

Wade ended his story with a yawn, "but I'll sleep tonight, my first real sleep in three years."

BARNES

Barnes, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Gladys Kane and son, Thomas, and Mrs. John Fridley and children of Kane and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schuler and sons of Warren, spent Sunday as the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schuler.

Sgt. George McDonald returned to Barnes Monday, for another twenty-one day furlough, which he is spending with his wife and their little daughter, at the home of Mrs. McDonald's mother, Mrs. John Knapp. Sgt. McDonald has spent the past three years in the Panama Canal Zone, but has now been re-assigned to a new outfit in Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Anna Chandler, Barnes' oldest citizen, now ninety-two years old, has for many years been interested in making scrap books and other articles used in educational and hospital work in the foreign missionary fields of her church. She has recently received acknowledgment of two boxes, one of which has already been sent to a missionary school in Africa. For this work, she uses old white linen and cotton rags, used greeting cards of all kinds and any bright colored pictures suitable for scrap books. She would greatly appreciate any such articles for this worthwhile work.

Miss Mary Alice Rudolph, who is employed in Warren, spent Sunday and Monday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rudolph.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Cook left for Erie Tuesday afternoon where they would be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Roberts and family for a week, before continuing on to Washington, D. C., to spend the remaining winter months at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Green and in visiting their other children living in the capital city.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Donahay and daughter, Jean, of Tiona, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brandt Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Lyautey and children of Highland were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brandt Sunday afternoon.

Ralph Bowley of the U. S. Navy arrived home Sunday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Bertha Bowley. Ralph has seen active duty in both theatres of war during the past two years. He has been a member of the crew of the S. S. Iowa, and had the interesting experience of being aboard when that ship carried so many notables to the Teheran conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Whitton were Jamestown visitors Monday. While Mr. Whitton was on a business mission, Mrs. Whitton visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Buck.

Mrs. Durward Clark, who for the past several months has been a laboratory technician at the Hamot Hospital in Erie, has rented an apartment in that city, and her mother, Mrs. F. J. Titus, and small daughter, Myra Lou Clark, went to Erie Saturday evening to live with her.

Mrs. W. C. Hover went to Corry Saturday evening where she will be the guest of her daughter, Miss Frances Hover, R. N.

First Lt. Bertrand R. Hover of Camp Chaffee, Ark., and Mrs. Hover and their small daughters, Ruth Ann and Carol Jean, of Reno, Pa., were guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hover, from Wednesday until Monday. Miss Rachel Barnes, R. N., of Warren, was a guest at that home Thursday, and Pvt. Frank Irvine of Camp Howie, Texas, and Mrs. Irvine, of Warren, were guests there Friday.

Mrs. Robert Curtin of Jamestown, N. Y., was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Curtin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stover entertained their bridge club at their home Saturday evening. Three

Y Dukes Hand North Warren 44-23 Lacing

The Dukes five of the YMCA handed the North Warren School five a 44 to 23 lacing at the North Warren Community Building yesterday afternoon. The accurate shooting of the Dukes' Shattuck and Kleshauser more than overcame the height of advantage of the North Warren players. The first half was a nip and tuck affair with the Dukes dropping in a flurry of baskets near the end of the session to roll up a 20 to 12 lead. The second half saw the Dukes keep up the scoring spree started near the close of the first half enabling them to tuck away a decisive 44 to 23 win. Shattuck was high scorer for the Dukes with 18 points with Lee leading the Schoolers with 12 points.

90% Drop In Betting Since Closing Down

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
Chicago, Jan. 25.—(P)—That strange bulge in the horse player's pocket ain't hay—it's idle folding money accumulated since the late crackdown on racing.
Gambling on horses in bookie parlors in the Chicago metropolitan area, once a $1,000,000 a day business—although not legalized—has fallen off 90 per cent since the government's ban on racing January 3, a survey revealed today.
The same situation undoubtedly prevails in other of America's larger cities.
The "commission rooms" where only big bets were accepted by telephone from bookies all over the country, are completely shut. The operators, however, haven't cancelled their arteries of phones, hoping that something will happen to permit the reopening of the tracks in the not too distant future. But they're moaning, nevertheless.
Handbook operators, big and small, offer these explanations for the tremendous slump in the patronage of bettors who averaged half a dollar, a buck, $2 or more on their favorite gee-gee:
1—Cheapness in the character of racing in Mexico and Havana, particularly the latter. Also unfavorably with the contesting steeds.
2—Lack of a fast, dependable "racing service" from which the bettors formerly received a description of the race from a blaring loud speaker.
3—General lack of interest, since no American tracks are operating.

Arturo Godoy To Make Third U. S. Stand

New York, Jan. 25.—(P)—Arturo Godoy, South American heavyweight champion from Chile, is expected to arrive at Miami tonight, his American manager, Al Weill, announced.
Weill, who is hopeful of arranging a bout with either Lee Oma or Joe Baksi, said that he has been swamped with offers for Godoy from Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Washington, Detroit and Philadelphia. He said it is likely that Godoy's first bout will be at Buffalo against an opponent still to be selected.

Plant Teams Win In YWCA Girls' Loop

In the girls' league campaign last night on the YWCA hardwood, the Struthers sextet downed the powerful Sylvanians, 30-22, and in the second game, the National Forge took the New Process crew, 48-29.

The first game saw Joy, Rowland, and Mills combining their scoring efforts to down the electricians in a fast battle. Lindquist led the Sylvanians scorers with 12.

The Forge-New Process engagement kept the Forgers way out in front, holding down first place with no losses. Hammer, Sheffer, and Black continued to pace the Forgers in their merry pace.

Next week, New Process and Sylvania come together at 7:30 and Struthers take on the Thomas Coupling at 8:30.

State Boxing May Undergo Overhauling

Harrisburg, Jan. 25.—(P)—Boxing will undergo a complete overhauling in Pennsylvania if bills now before legislature are enacted into law.

Under a measure submitted to the general assembly yesterday by Senator Louis M. Farrell (R-Philadelphia) the referee would be given an equal voice in all decisions along with the two judges.

The bill provides that all three officials vote and unless one of the boxers received two votes the bout would be declared a draw. Now the referee only votes if the two judges disagree.

Farrell also advocated acceptance of fines from promoters for infraction of the rules instead of the customary revocation or suspension of licenses by the commission.

Another measure proposed by Rep. James W. Hennihan (D-Luzerne) would change the boxing regulations to add small town promoters. The former boxing referee said he planned to introduce his measure at a later date.

Hennihan would make a change in the present five per cent state tax on boxing show tickets, now paid by the promoter, so that it can be passed on to the patrons.

Other amendments that Hennihan said may be included in his proposed bill would permit no decision fights, except in title matches, to remove the need for employing judges for every bout, and to permit promoters to select referees from their home towns, cutting down on travelling expenses.

Norman Angell, English economist, was born Ralph Norman Angell Lane.

BEHIND THE LINES

The recent proposal to combine the fish, game, and forestry commissions into one group is definitely being opposed by the sportsmen of the state. Sportsmen's organizations all over the state are voicing their protests toward the possible change. This plan has been tried unsuccessfully by a number of other states in the country, and the vociferous complaints realize that this merger would probably result in one branch or the other having less say than the other, therefore developing into a continuous controversy over who was going to get what.

Coach Harry Dennison, of Meadville, is probably having the toughest time of any coach in District Ten, Section Two, or any other section. Dennison lost six of his players last week, three of them lettermen. He is now faced with the almost superhuman feat of restocking his team in the face of upcoming league battles. Lettermen lost were Bob Hoffecker, former Warren player, because of the eight-semester ruling, Clyde Perry, and Vic Ricci. The latter two were dropped because of unsatisfactory grades. Adding to the "Dennison dilemma" was the enlistment in the Navy of two boys just about to be advanced to varsity action. Another performer, Bob Burkhard, encountered a broken collarbone and is out for the remainder of the season.

This corner wonders whether or not the following is also a hard luck story. Bradford fans claim that two of the Owls' outstanding players, Bubbles Lloyd, big center, and Bill Ventura, clever guard, have dropped from Bradford High School's cage activity. The Owls lost a 41-32 decision to the Erie Tech cagers last Saturday on their own court, a few words were said—and that seems to be the reason for the trouble. My guess is that before Bradford plays its next game, these two boys will be back in action. Rumoring that some of their players had dropped from the squad seems to be a favorite trick of the Bradfordites.

Saturday night's college basketball doubleheader in Buffalo's Memorial Auditorium pits Temple against Michigan State and Long Island University against Canisius. The appearance of Temple on the card makes it one of the best remaining on the Auditorium slate. The Owls are rated as one of the finest clubs in the east, having lost only twice, once to Temple and once to St. John's of Brooklyn, against a string of twelve victories. Michigan is near the top in the mid-western section and should extend the Philadelphians to the limit. Both L. I. U. and Canisius are slightly on the down side this season, but still sport fairly good records. On February 10, Bowling Green meets the top-flight Westminster Titans in a double bill along with Canisius and Syracuse. On the 17th, the high-scoring Rhode Island States and Ernie Calverley take on Detroit

Stray Leaves From Notebook Of Reporter About Town

Mention was made in The Leaves the other evening of the stones used in setting the tires on wagon and buggy wheels and it was suggested that all of the stones had disappeared. However, Tracy Greenlund called up and informed us that one of the wheels is still embedded in the ground near the Parrish Battery Shop. This stone was used by Gruber and Lauffer at their wagon shop. Here some of the best wagons ever turned out were manufactured and most of the work was done by hand. The wood in the wagons was well seasoned and most of it came from the woodland of the county. The hub, spokes and felloe of the wheels had to be strong and true to bear the burdens placed upon them and to withstand the jars due to the ruts in the roads. Many of the wagons were used in hauling oil and lumber and the roads were rutted and rough, many of them being corduroy roads through the swampy tracts into the woods. Hauling of boilers to oil wells was another big job that required staunch wagon wheels. When the snow cleared away and if you have never seen one of the stones in question it might be worth while to walk to lower Market street and have a look.

The Pittsburgh Motor Club has asked Governor Martin to extend the time for car inspections past the January 31st deadline, due to the rush at the garages and their inability to get cars in shape after the wracking they are taking on ice-riddled roads. George Horsfield, of the Autobody Repair Company here, echoes the idea for an extension. He is well posted on problems of inspection service and feels that an extension should be made. "The garages are simply unable to get all of the cars processed for the inspection. I find that all Warren garages are loaded with work. We are endeavoring to get out all cars possible and our men are working long hours. Cars driven by persons on war jobs must be in shape and we are co-operating in every way," said Mr. Horsfield this morning. The Warren Motor Club is expected to support the Pittsburgh Club's endeavors.

Talk about doubling up: Ash Wednesday comes on St. Valentine's Day and Easter falls on April Fool's Day. Many an old gal is going to be fooled by not getting a new Easter outfit!

Dave Levine can always extend the glad hand to any man or woman applying for a job. Dave says Warren industry can use a goodly number of men and a whole flock of women. How in heck a woman can dance and at the same time do the contortions that Alice Strickland does at the Outing Club is really something. Those boys and girls up at the Sylvia plant are a generous lot. For Alice Santa they kicked in with over $100 and have just donated over $50 to the March of Dimes. Doc Jordan reports the river completely closed for the first time this year, citing it as evidence that it was really cold today. Doug Kropf is going to celebrate his ninth wedding anniversary next Monday. Better be a little easy shoveling snow, as the obituary columns of exchanges record many have died while engaged in this work. The crisp air urges a fellow to shovel fast and furious and gets the old pump working too hard. Slow and easy does the trick and even if a flu germ should freeze on you, it's better than flowers and slow music. Dealers report more fur coats sold this year than ever in Warren's history. Just goes to show that more women are working than ever before and that they are gratifying desires with their big pay. One gal in the office the other day gave the info that she is coping nine bucks per day in a local plant. Boys with the wrenches had a busy time today getting the frozen pipes back into operation. The old gas meters this morning merely put forth with "Don't Fence Me In." Those kids who worked long hours getting skating underway on Beatty court have sure had the co-operation of the weather man. No one else ever managed to produce artificial skating for so long a period. Those kids must live right.

Bus riders could do much themselves to speed up service in Warren. Two persons, for instance, really constitute a crowd when they stand in front of exit doors. Even one passenger in a strategic position in front of a door, slows up buses. Keep away from the doors. And before you leave the bus, be sure you have everything you had when you got on. Hundreds of parcels are left behind every year. And if you need a transfer, get it when you pay your fare, not when you're getting off.

Even while the mercury is down below zero and the streets are piled high with snow banks signs of spring are beginning to pile up. Seed catalogues are in the mail and the wall paper people are filling the mail boxes with samples; advertisements for summer camps are being received; farmers are being reminded that now is the time to order young trees from the State Nursery for spring planting in the woodlot. It is only six weeks until Easter and buyers for the stores have been hiking to New York for the spring stocks. Already spring hats and suits for women are appearing in the ads. It really won't be long now and Oh, how Dad will welcome a surcease from those big gas bills.

"Bill" Muir yesterday was recalling some of the fun he enjoyed in the eighties and nineties of Warren. His parents came to the city in 1887 and Bill has spent most of his life in the village. He recalled the fish market and store operated in a small building on Hickory street. Peter sold oysters and shucked them putting the shells in a barrel out in front of his place of business. One time a group of boys took five barrels of the shells to the home of Mike Mead and placed them on his porch, sans the barrels. The lads had to clean up the mess and incidentally got pinched. It might also be added that Elstrup sold most delicious jaw breakers (big balls of lemon flavored candy that made a kid look like a squirrel with a mouthful of nuts) two for a cent and most of the Sunday School pennies given the kids found repose in Elstrup's money drawer.

A new berth is being sought for Old Ironsides, officially known as the "Constitution." This historic fighting ship has been berthed in the Boston Navy Yard for the last ten years, but an insufficiency of space for the berthing of combat ships makes it necessary that a new resting place be found for Old Ironsides.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 2 pints a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging headaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Experts Will Discuss Veterans Employment, Rehabilitation

One of the most important meetings of the Warren County Personnel Association will be held Wednesday, January 31 at the Y. W. C. A. The gathering will take the form of a dinner meeting, with dinner served at 6 o'clock. The topic for discussion will be "Veterans Re-employment and Rehabilitation" and it will bring to the city some experts on the plan. Among them will be William Ilgenfritz, Veteran Personnel Department and Mark Walter, Division of Rehabilitation, Harrisburg. There also promises to be other important speakers.

The discussion will be led by Sylvanus Davis, of the Warren United States Employment Service office, who has received much special training in the matter that will be considered.

All industrial heads and personnel workers interested are invited to attend and due to the fact that the seating capacity of the YWCA limits the gathering to 100 persons all who wish to attend must make reservations. This can be done calling Clem Wolstencroft, Personnel department at Struthers Wells, Phone 690. No reservations can be made later than Monday noon.

REDS CRACK ODER LINE BEFORE BRESLAU

RUSSIAN VANGUARDS LITTLE MORE THAN 125 MILES FROM BERLIN ON SILESIAN FRONT

Smash Heading Toward Bohemian Mountains In Czechoslovakia, Menaces German Armies In Austria, Hungary and Slovakia

LARGE PORTION OF EAST PRUSSIA SHEARED OFF

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press War Editor

The Red army, with vanguards little more than 125 miles from Berlin, has cracked the Oder river line before Breslau, industrial Silesian capital, and in the north apparently has sheared most of East Prussia from the Reich in a drive to the Baltic which isolated huge numbers of Nazi troops.

On the western front, a field dispatch said a new German assault in northeastern Alsace against the U. S. Seventh Army might "signal the start of the final battle for Alsace."

Fall of Breslau appeared imminent as Soviet forces stormed across the Oder in the heart of Silesia to the southeast. By German account, other forces made another crossing 32 miles northwest of the city and 138 miles from Berlin.

The crossing southeast of Breslau apparently was in the area of Oppeln, captured industrial city 48 miles away. This smash, heading toward the Bohemian mountains in Czechoslovakia, seemed aimed at cutting off part of Silesia from Berlin and menacing German armies in Austria, Hungary and Slovakia.

The Sixth Soviet Army in the westward offensive, Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's Fourth Ukrainian, was reported within 40 miles east of the Jablunka gateway to Moravia, once called by Bismarck a controlling position in central Europe.

The Moscow radio said a state of siege had been proclaimed in Prague, old Czechoslovak capital, as the Germans told of a new retreat. The Russian broadcast said mass unrest had broken out in the capital, with workers striking and the population attempting to prevent German evacuation of machinery and materials. The Germans reported a mass civilian evacuation in Slovakia.

One Moscow report to London said that vanguards of Marshal Ivan S. Konev's First Ukrainian Army had battered into the outskirts of Breslau, industrial capital of Germany's war-vital Silesia. Other Russians were placed four miles to the southeast. Hundreds of Russian self-propelled guns hammered the city's fortifications. Field dispatches reported that the

The action generally, however, was on so small a scale that the discharge of a booby trap by a U. S. raiding party in the vicinity of Monte Cerere south of Bologna rated mention in an official report of the day's operations.

A German night patrol was repulsed in an attack on an Eighth Army strongpoint east of Fosso Vecchio.

The First Army reported considerable less contact with the Germans than yesterday. A German party was repulsed near Monte.

Wallace Proposes Probe Of R. F. C. Lending Under Jones

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Contending big versus little business is "the real issue" in control of the government's huge banking powers, Henry A. Wallace today proposed a congressional investigation of RFC lending under Jesse Jones.

The former vice president said that "the real motive" behind a bill to strip the lending authority wielded by Jones away from the commerce secretaryship "has nothing to do with my competence to handle those powers."

If confirmed as secretary of commerce, Wallace made clear, he intends to use the lending authority to assist little business as well as the big companies in a drive for "a free America, which is also a prosperous America" and to carry out President Roosevelt's goal of 60,000,000 post-war jobs.

Wallace testified before the senate commerce committee and a standing-room-only crowd.

Declaring that he is willing to serve as secretary of commerce whether or not the monetary setup is left in that department, Wallace testified that "no soldier on the battlefield can do less than carry out his assignment."

But in making a strong plea for confirmation to head an intact department, Wallace proposed what was regarded as a compromise offer to those who have sought to block approval of him for the post from which President Roosevelt asked Jones' resignation.

Jones, who testified yesterday, had frankly termed Wallace "not qualified" for the combination posts that have been held by the Texan. But Wallace expressed "deep concern" at the move to take the lending authority away from the cabinet job.

He would be "less than frank," Wallace said, if he told the committee that his concern sprang merely from the fact that the separation of authority was proposed.

Reading from a typewritten statement, Wallace said talk of his lack of experience—words used by Jones—"does not fool either me or the American people."

JAPS PAY HIGH TOLL IN CLARK FIELD SIEGE

Ten Nips Killed for Every American After Two Weeks' Campaign For Vital Airfield

BAMBAN RIVER CROSSED

By C. YATES McDANIEL

General MacArthur's Headquarters, Luzon, Jan. 25.—(AP)—A swiftly massing weight of 14th Army Corps motorized troops besieged Clark Field's 13 airstrips today after a two weeks' campaign on Luzon in which 10 Japanese were killed for every American.

Manila lies less than 50 air miles ahead of the south-bound Yank columns, disclosed officially today to have paid the relatively low cost of 657 lives during the first 14 days of their 65-mile drive from Lingayen Gulf. More than 6,000 dead Japanese have been counted.

An intricate maze of more than 30 fortress caves, which the Nipponese spent months building as a major defense belt for Clark Field, littered with scores of wrecked Japanese bombers and fighters, is in the hands of 40th Division soldiers. Disdainful of willing enemy rearguard resistance, little artillery spotter planes landed on the satellite field before the ground troops got there.

The Bambang river, where the enemy could have put up a delaying fight, has been crossed.

The town of Bambang has been seized and the town of Mababactan, last one before Clark Field, has been reached in a 10-mile push from Capas which has carried into Panpanga province, long referred to as "the gateway to Manila."

As long ago as Wednesday morning, the latest period covered in today's communique, motorized units of Maj. Gen. Oscar W. Griswold's corps were on the borders of Clark Field and Fort Stotsenburg.

Maj. Gen. Rapp Brush's 40th Division entered the town of Bambang, a little over four miles southwest of Capas, Tuesday, finding the Japanese had laid waste to it and left behind a rearguard. This force had to be ousted in a street-by-street fight and flushed from pillboxes, Fred Hampson reported in an Associated Press field dispatch.

But in ridges west of the town, where the Japanese had counted on exacting a terrific toll of American lives, a network of painstakingly-constructed defenses was abandoned.

Mother and Five Children Die In Blaze

Wayne Junction, Jan. 25.—(AP)—A mother and her five children were burned to death today in a fire that roared through their row house here.

The dead were Mrs. Mildred Moyer, 40; Mary, 17; Jane, 11; Harry, 9; and James, 4, and Mildred, one. Firemen said they apparently had no chance to escape.

The father, Harry, 41, summered from his post as a Reading Company Railroad brakeman, arrived as the charred bodies were being carried out. His voice broke as he gave firemen the victim's names.

The fire was first noticed about 6:30 a. m. by two passersby who saw smoke pouring from a bedroom window. One hurled a stone through a window, hoping to let in air. Immediately, he said, a streak of flame shot out almost 15 feet.

Cause of the blaze was not determined.

Pennsylvania Shivers In One Of Coldest Spells of Winter; Little Relief Is Promised

By the Associated Press

Frigid winds from the west drove temperatures to sub-zero levels in many parts of Pennsylvania today as citizens shivered in one of the coldest spells of the winter.

In the northwest, Kane reported an official reading of 28 below zero and St. Marys, in Elk county, had 26 below, Clarion had 20 below and Seward, in Westmoreland county, reported 24 below.

Harrisburg reported 4 below. Other temperatures were Hazleton 12 below, Franklin 13 below, Parkers Landing 12 below, Bear Creek 14 below, Scranton 5 below, Lancaster, Reading and Wilkes-Barre zero. The mercury dropped to two above in Philadelphia and to 8 above in Pittsburgh.

The weatherman promised little relief, predicting continued cold for today and tomorrow.

Mountainous drifts clogged numerous secondary roads and kept highway crews working feverishly to clear the main arteries of traffic.

Route 22, the principal east-west highway between Harrisburg and New York, was closed by state police last night as being too dangerous for travel. All bus service between Harrisburg and the east was discontinued because of snow in the eastern sections.

The biting wind whipped fallen snow into dense clouds which blinded motorists and at Bradford yesterday caused a Greyhound bus to crash into a snow pile, injuring 11 persons, six of them seriously.

Many rural schools were closed because of the blocked roads. At Titusville, high school students from outlying sections were forced to sleep in town last night because their buses were unable to negotiate impassable highways.

Gusts swept the Allentown area at a 60-mile-an-hour clip last night, closing the highway between Netts and Slatington. Wayne county also reported a 60-mile-an-hour gale.

Northwestern Pennsylvania was hard hit by the snowstorm, some sections claiming it worse than the December storm because of the high wind velocity. Kane reported its worst blizzard of the winter yesterday when six inches of snow fell.

MAY SIGNAL FINAL BATTLE FOR ALSACE

Germans Launch Attack on 20-Mile Front From Haguenau Northwest To Vosges Mountains

MODER RIVER CROSSED

By EDWARD KENNEDY

Paris, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The Germans launched an attack today against the U. S. 7th Army along a 20-mile front from Haguenau northwest to the lower Vosges mountains, and at places crossed the Moder river 15 miles inside France.

Gen. Hermann Balck opened the drive with a heavy artillery and mortar barrage, while other Germans to the north were continuing a great eastward exodus from the Ardennes salient. Roads and rails were so littered in the north that the Germans resorted to routes in the center.

The First and Third armies captured nine more towns in the Ardennes salient, now reduced to about 120 square miles. The British Second Army to the north captured four more just west of the Roer river and moved to within 30 miles of Dusseldorf and three of Roermond.

But in Alsace, large German forces began crossing the Moder river line, which Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's 7th Army had taken after withdrawing from the Hatten area north of the strategic Haguenau forest.

Farther northwest and about two miles north of the Moder, the Germans attacked in the Bischholz-Mulhausen area 15 miles south of the Palatinat. Farther into the snowy Vosges, the enemy threw strong blows at Reipertswiller, eight miles southeast of Bitche.

Other Germans snapped back in southern Alsace below Strasbourg and made strong counterattacks against French troops on both the northern and southern flanks of the Colmar-Mulhouse pocket. The Germans were within 10 miles south and 11 north of Strasbourg, the prized capital of Alsace which the French and Germans both claim as their own.

BULLETINS

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Brig. Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe, who retorted with a defiant "nuts" to a German surrender ultimatum at Bastogne, was nominated today for promotion to major general.

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Frank C. Walker was nominated by President Roosevelt today for another term as postmaster general. His is the only cabinet position whose term is fixed by law.

Scranton, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Fire, said by authorities to have been caused by an overheated furnace, destroyed the summit motion picture theatre and two large garages in Clarks Summit, near here, this morning. Fourteen automobiles in one of the garages were reduced to ruins and the total fire loss was estimated at $100,000.

Hitler Defense Strategy Is Thrown Off Balance By Reds

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Hitler's grand strategy for the prolonged defense of the fortress of Germany possibly has been thrown completely off balance by the terrific impact of the Russian offensive.

This is the opinion of some military authorities here, who are beginning to wonder how long now Germany will be able to hold out under the onslaught.

Estimates that the European war would last until late summer or fall as a result of the German west front offensive in December now are being scrapped. At the moment there is an open-minded attitude on how quickly and in what manner Germany may be defeated.

Defeat could take the form of unconditional surrender by the army high command if the command splits with the Nazi political leadership, or could be evidenced by a fairly rapid breakup of organized resistance with a long period of guerrilla warfare following.

Confronted with the necessity of fighting off attacks on two fronts this winter, the Germans launched their December counter-offensive. They hoped to cripple the offensive power of the western Allies, but met with only limited success. The German thrust inflicted heavy damage on some American units and perhaps blocked a threatened offensive move by General Eisenhower. It failed to deal a crippling blow by knocking out the supply port of Antwerp, nor did it cut the Allied supply trunk from the port of Antwerp to the front in the vicinity of Namur.

In consequence the Germans must now realize a reborn danger of powerful assault action by Anglo-American forces.

British Bombers Attack Sumatra

By the Associated Press
Tokyo radio reported today that more than 120 British carrier planes attacked the Palembang oil producing area of Sumatra Wednesday while a small U. S. naval task force shelled Iwo Jima on the southern approaches to Japan.

A Japanese imperial communique, which did not identify the nationality of the attackers, said 78 of the 120 raiders were shot down and 14 Japanese interceptors failed to return.

All of the Japanese reports were unconfirmed, and all were recorded by the Federal Communications Commission.

A domestic broadcast over Tokyo radio said three aircraft carriers formed the backbone of the Sumatra raiding force, described as part "of the enemy British fleet which is coming in from the Indian ocean." The broadcaster said this was the first time a British naval unit had ventured into the area southwest of Sumatra.

PROP WASH PREVENTS LANDING IN GERMANY

A U. S. Bomber Station in England, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Sgt. John Caravello, Route 3, Tamaqua, Pa., says that prop wash from American fighter planes prevented his becoming a German prisoner after he bailed out of a crippled Flying Fortress.

Caravello said he and another gunner drifted helplessly over German territory until two Mustang escort planes started a series of loops, power dives and circles around them. The wash from the propellers, pushed the chutes back over American territory

Loss of American Troopship Listed

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—An American troop ship carrying more than 2,200 soldiers was sunk recently in European waters as a result of enemy action with the loss of 248 dead and 517 missing.

Secretary of War Stimson made the announcement at his news conference today.

The remainder of the troops aboard, more than 1,400, were saved, Stimson said.

Former Editor Being Coached For White House Spokesman

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The White House is coaching Jonathan Daniels, former editor and author, as a successor to Presidential Secretary Stephen Early.

If the change is made, Daniels will handle President Roosevelt's press relations and Early will step out into private employment.

Daniels now is one of five administrative assistants to the chief executive—those aides whose main qualification is supposed to be "a passion for anonymity." Before coming to the White House, he was assistant director of civilian defense.

(Turn to Page Nine)

Early has been asked, and has agreed, to go to supreme Allied headquarters in Europe to look over press relations there. He expects to be gone for weeks.

During his absence, Daniels will answer queries and issue statements for the press. Early hopes things will go so smoothly that Daniels can keep right on after the European mission ends.

Early is not keeping it secret that he would like to give up the $10,000 a year job as presidential secretary and take one or more of several private offers that would pay considerably more.

Rehearsal For Floor Show At Beaty Tonight

All of the young people who are participating in either the community party floor show or auditorium show are asked to be in the Beaty school auditorium at eight o'clock for this evening's dress rehearsal. Five acts have been booked for each of the shows and promise to give an entertaining evening for the young people on Saturday night at the teen to twenty one community young people's party in Beaty school.

John Erickson, Louis Chimenti, and David Brown have charge of the first auditorium show which has been planned for the community party. Charles Brown and Dick Blair are sharing master of ceremonies honors for the floor show.

Another new feature at Saturday night's party will be two orchestras alternating to furnish music for the dancing. There will also be ice skating with music on the court all evening. The refreshment committee is planning to serve both hot and cold drinks, sandwiches, doughnuts and potato chips.

There will be dancing from 8:30 to 11:30, games and continuous entertainment in the auditorium. The floor show is scheduled for ten o'clock.

CAP Aiding In WAC Sign-up

Announcement is made today that Kathleen Simmons has been appointed director of WAC recruiting for Squadron 53, Civil Air Patrol of Pennsylvania, and has been promoted to the grade of corporal in the CAP.

The CAP office on the fifth floor of the Warren National Bank building is open each Friday evening from eight until nine o'clock and any persons interested in obtaining further information concerning the Women's Army Corps is welcome to call there.

There is increasing need for WAC recruits, particularly for training as surgical technicians, and local women and girls eligible for this branch of service are urged to respond in this emergency.

In the first 90 days of the invasion of Europe, the Army issued 125 million maps.

Refreshments For Skaters Again Tonight

There will be hot chocolate and doughnuts again this evening for the ice skaters on Beaty court. The young people enjoyed the refreshments served on Tuesday evening, so the Community Recreation refreshments committee is planning to be at the school certain nights each week.

On Tuesday evening JoAnn Phillips, chairman was assisted by Geraldine Nero, Jean Zeiders, Carol Phillips, Helen Hathaway, Marie Kammerer, Teresa Fino, Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. Downey and Mrs. Mathyer.

The court was flooded again twice last evening and several times today. The drop in temperature has given the ice maintenance committee a good opportunity to build up the ice. Boys taking care of the flooding today were Jimmy Lawson, Tom Bean, Elmer Mellander, Dick Bean and Ben Newmaker. Those who assisted Jimmy last evening were Clifford Maze, Joe Walters, Dwight Carlson, Ray Berdine.

There will be music again this evening for the skaters.

NO EXTENSION YET

February 1st, is the deadline for the securing of the new motor drivers license and as yet no extension of time for the use of the new licenses has been announced.

DOG LICENSES HERE

County Treasurer Simonsen has received a consignment of dog licenses and owners of dogs are warned they had better "come and get 'em".

CHILD AT AUNTS

A small girl from the East Side caused her parents some apprehension last night when she did not come home from school. Police were notified and finally located her at the home of an aunt.

PLEADED GUILTY

Robert Nelson was arrested by State Police last night at a home in Starbrick where he was creating trouble. Charged with disorderly conduct he entered a plea of guilty this morning when arraigned before Magistrate Greenlund. A fine of $10 and costs was assessed.

CHIMNEY PLUGGED UP

The chimney in the house at 411 Lincoln avenue became plugged with soot this morning and the house was filled with smoke. The emergency truck from the Central station responded and cleaned out the smoky living and the trouble was ended. The only damage done was to clothing of the firemen.

PAID FINE AND COSTS

Fred Sechrist, caretaker of the Marconi Outing Club, arrested on a charge of possessing gambling devices, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Tracy Greenlund yesterday afternoon. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined $14 and costs, or $21.50 in all. The fine was paid.

CERTIFICATES AWARDED

The Pennsylvania Dept. of Forests and Waters takes pleasure in announcing the award of a twenty five year Forest Fire Warden Certificate to Linn Atkins of Big Bend and a Ten Year Certificate to L. B. Dole of Sheffield. These awards represent years of faithful service in behalf of the forests of Warren county and other sections of this district.

SHORTAGE IS KEEN

The cigarette shortage in Warren this week is marked. Many of the dealers only were given about half of their usual supply and the machines and "stoops" have been effectually cleared of anything that looks like a smoke. There also is a shortage of "rolling material" and even the boys who can twist a cigarette are having trouble getting a supply of tobacco. Smokes are bringing fancy prices and it has developed into a case of pay the money or go without in many places.

Tom Bean, and Jimmy Dunkle. There will be music again this evening for the skaters.

Obituary

Unless otherwise stated, visiting hours at Warren's funeral homes are from 10 a. m. to 12; 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m.

ARLENE M. NELSON

Funeral services in memory of Arlene M. Nelson were held at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Claude Phillips, North Warren, with Rev. J. H. Crutshank, minister of North Warren Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment was made in Oakland cemetery with the following acting as bearers: Arthur Lee, Arthur Peterson, Robert Main, Chester Sampson, Perry Thelin and Edward Stevens. Attending the rites from away were Victoria Lund, Ripley, N. Y.; Sidney Carlson, Rochester, N. Y.; Marion Carlson, Hornell, N. Y.; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nelson, Jamestown, N. Y.

Route 6 Home Damaged By Small Blaze

The farm home owned by Claude Baccus and occupied by the family of Herbert Wade, just east of Baccus Corners on Route 6, several miles east of Columbus, came very near being destroyed by fire early Tuesday night but was saved by the work of Mr. Wade, other members of the household and Mr. Baccus.

At 9:45 a call was sent to Corry for assistance from the city fire department but because of the prevailing storm it was not believed the truck could reach the scene in time to be of service. A few minutes later word was phoned from the Baccus home that the fire on the neighboring property had been brought under control.

The home had recently been equipped with a new chimney but the fire appeared to start near the flue in the upper part of the house. Mr. Wade lost no time in chopping away adjacent material and a bucket brigade was soon in action with the result that the blaze was brought under control and prevented from spreading throughout the building. The loss will be moderate, it was said today, although some quite extensive repairs will be necessary and some further damage was caused to the furnishings by water and smoke.

Coldest Night of the Winter Follows Wednesday Blizzard

Wednesday's blizzard, which swirled snow into drifts on highways and streets and gave employees of the highway and street departments hard work, was followed by a drop in the mercury that registered the lowest averages of the year. As usual, Arch Blowers from his mountain fastness on the Beaty lease on Morrison Run takes the electric cooled thermometer with a reading of 32 below at 6 a. m. and 30 below at 8 a. m.

"Doc" Jordan came through with a reading of nine below on the U. S. official thermometer at his home on the South Side. This thermometer, like all government instruments, is enclosed in a latched box. C. T. Conarro reported 18 below on his registering thermometer on Laurel street; Devere Kirberger had 12 below when he turned out at 8 on Poplar street; the Pennsylvania Gas Company showed 15 below at 6 a. m. and 10 below at 8 o'clock; at Clarendon, 22 below was registered, while in Russell, Sheffield and Starbrick 20 below was reported.

Hours of heavy work with plows and trucks was required by highway employees to keep the roads open yesterday and last night, when the heavy winds swept huge drifts along the roads. In this county good work was done and the roads were kept passable, but all buses were running late and this morning the Northern Express was two hours and forty-five minutes late. Pipes were reported frozen about the town and the plumbing establishments were swamped due to the shortage of men.

Garages were kept busy getting cars started this morning and scores of the machines refused to start when the owners went to their garages. Many had frozen radiators and some were badly damaged. With the inspection period closing next Wednesday, the road closing this morning will keep many machines off the road.

It is keeping the "oldest inhabitant" busy endeavoring to match the run of cold weather which has been experienced during the past few weeks. Not in many years has there been such a long-continued cold spell accompanied by so much snow.

REQUIRES REAL WORK

One of the bitterest fights waged against the drifting snow and the ice that forms has been underway at the parking lot of the Marconi Club. Since the snowfall started it has been a constant battle to keep the lot open and the approach to the club in shape for driving. Much work is required every day but so far the employees of the club have been able to keep ahead of the weatherman and keep the lot in good shape.

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY

William K. Dimick, of Buffalo, who was employed at the State Hospital, some months ago as an attendant, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Greenlund on Wednesday afternoon on a charge of burglary of an automobile. He entered a plea of guilty and was held for quarter sessions court. Dimick was already in the hands of the law for the robbery of the Knorr Service Station at Venturatown. The theft for which he was held yesterday was committed last November, when he entered a car owned by John Wade Cyphert, another attendant at the State Hospital, and stole a tarpaulin. The theft took place on the hospital grounds.

Lucy Mae Holsinger, Ethel Coy, Laura Jean Coy and David Crooks attended a party and sleighride last Friday evening held at the home of Miss Celeste Van Sickle of Corydon.

SIEGFRIED

There has been special interest in the so-called Siegfried Line, mentioned daily in Associated Press dispatches in the Times-Mirror, for traditional and artistic as well as military reasons. For the Germans, and also for large numbers of Americans, that region along the lower Rhine has long been classic ground. It is the birthplace of the famous medieval epic, the Nibelungenlied, which in modern times has been raised to musical fame by the Wagnerian operas.

Siegfried and his exploits are, of course, mythical. There may have been a hero of that name, just as there may have been real persons engaged in the famous Trojan wars of the ancient Greeks. But as far as actual evidence is concerned, there appears to be nothing but mythology—legends from long ago passed down through successive generations by old men, or by poets and troubadours who were the entertainers of their times.

Whether fact or fiction, it would be far more pleasant to be dealing today with those old legends and songs than with the stern subject-matter of a great modern war. But there has been danger even in those mythological traditions and songs, for they have helped turn the heads of modern Germans, whose leaders have turned their meaning and purpose upside down.

CAN YOU LAUGH AT YOURSELF?

One of the greatest of all gifts vouchsafed to the human race is the sense of humor. It makes life joyous, minimizes sorrows, and changes existence from a penance and a peril into something to enjoy, says Ross Byron in a current magazine.

A sense of humor is more than the ability or the tendency to pass wise-cracks at the expense of others, which is a definite hindrance to personality and not an aid. It is really a sense of proportion—the highest development or ability of mind.

A man or woman with a sense of humor doesn't get upset when things take a wrong turn. He or she doesn't take himself or herself too seriously, knowing that there is really nothing extraordinarily important in any phase of human life. He or she has a fine sense of values.

The basis of a sense of humor is intelligence—a knowledge of the world and its inhabitants. A person ignorant of human affairs has no sense of humor, because he will have superstition, prejudice and bigotry in its place. But one who knows life, one who has a sense of values, one who has developed intelligence, that person will have a sense of humor.

Can you laugh at yourself as readily as at others? If you can, you are safe. If you can't, watch out—you are really on dangerous ground so far as having a pleasing personality is concerned.

ON FEEDING THE BIRDS

Anonymous communications are usually consigned to the wastepaper basket, but here's one arriving today that justifies a little different treatment because of the appeal it contains in behalf of our feathered friends who have been deprived of their source of food supply due to the fact that the ground has been blanketed with snow for the past two months:

"Editor: A small editorial as below might serve a humane purpose during this heavy winter weather:

"Having nailed a chunk of suet to a tree in the yard near my home, I have enjoyed the heart-comfort to observe birds feeding on it these frigid, snow-bound, blizzard days when they could not possibly find food because of the heavy blanket of snow.

"If more people would take note of this present distress of local wild life and would thoughtfully place some food where they could reach it, they, too, might get a kick out of it.—Subscriber."

The great Red offensive by hastening the end of the European war—as it obviously is doing—is piling up pressing political problems for the big three, and one of these has to do with the turbulent Balkans where several thrones are rocking in a strong wind which blows from off the Russian steppes.

There is only one choice for a real American—back up the folks in the service! Otherwise you let them down!

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

The kings came and fought, then fought the kings of Canaan in Tanach by the waters of Magiddo; they took no gain of money.—Judges 5:19.

And by a prudent flight and cunning save
A life, which valour could not, from the grave.
A better buckler I can soon regain;
But who can get another life again?
—Archilochus (in Plutarch).

LOCAL WOMEN GET THOUSANDS OF EXTRA RED POINTS

Every day, precious red points are being paid to housewives who turn in used fats to their butcher. Because this country is faced with a possible fat shortage, these used kitchen fats are even more urgently needed to make medicines, synthetic rubber, gunpowder, soaps, paints and a hundred other essentials on the battlefield and home front.

Every woman can help towards final Victory by saving every drop of used fats each time she cooks. Even a spoonful is worth salvaging. Won't you keep saving until final Victory over both Germany and Japan?

Honors Paid War Prisoner Sgt. Hawley

Edgar E. Hawley, 225 Watson Place, who is still confined to Warren General Hospital after weeks of illness, has received from the office of the adjutant general word of special honor paid his son, S/Sgt. Mones E. Hawley, who is a German prisoner of war.

The letter, from Brig. Gen. Robert H. Dunlop, is as follows: "My Dear Mr. Hawley: "I have the honor to inform you that, by direction of the President, the Air Medal and four Oak Leaf Clusters, representing four additional awards of the same decoration, have been awarded to your son, Staff Sergeant Mones E. Hawley, Air Corps. The citations are as follows:

"Air Medal and one Oak Leaf Cluster—In recognition of meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flights against the enemy in the Middle East Theatre and for participating in nine sorties of more than two and one-half hours, and two sorties of less than two and one-half hours.

"Three Oak Leaf Clusters to Air Medal—For meritorious achievement while participating in sixteen sorties against the enemy.

"Since these awards cannot be formally presented to your son at this time, the decorations will be presented to you. The Air Medal and four Oak Leaf Clusters will be forwarded to the Commanding General, Third Service Command, Baltimore, Maryland, who will select an officer to make the presentation. The officer selected will communicate with you concerning your wishes in the matter. Sincerely yours, (Signed) Robert H. Dunlop."

War Prisoner Writes Home

Mrs. Ross J. Morell, 52 Clark street, has received within the past week a card and two letters, all dated in August of last year, from her husband, S/Sgt. Morell, who is a German prisoner of war.

The Flying Fortress on which he was a radio operator was shot down over Berlin August 6.

Since leaving this country last June, he had recorded 17 missions to his credit and was awarded the Air Medal and an Oak Leaf Cluster in lieu of a second such decoration.

He writes that he is well and mentions that the Red Cross is doing a great deal for the prisoners.

S/Sgt. Morell is the son of Mrs. Frances Morell, now living in Bradford.

Cpl. Blair Is With the 15th

According to advices arriving from the 15th AAF headquarters in Italy, Cpl. Lawrence F. Blair, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blair, of Clarendon, and husband of Edith Z. Blair, Warren RD 3, has been assigned to a B-24 Liberator heavy bombardment group in Italy, to serve as waist gunner.

Edicated at Warren High School, Blair received his gunnery training at Laredo, Texas. He entered the army October 13, 1943, and arrived in Italy in November, 1944. In civilian life he was employed by Struthers-Wells.

The unit to which he is now attached has been twice cited by the War Department for outstanding performances in the Mediterranean theatre of operations.

County Holiness Association Has Its First Session

At a special meeting held in the Free Methodist church at Youngsville, the group formed a new religious unit to be known as the Warren County Holiness Association and elected the following to serve as its officers:

President, Rev. G. G. Burke, Youngsville; vice president, Rev. L. W. Drury, Warren; secretary, Rev. V. V. Van Derlin, Pittsfield; treasurer, Rev. H. H. Atkins, Chancellors Valley; Russell Baldwin, Falconer, N. Y.; Spencer Conklin, Warren; and Frank Hendrickson, Youngsville.

The first session was held in the afternoon with a devotional service and . . . Rev. Cecil Clifton, of Apollo, director of the Family Altar program, leading the singing and bringing a special message in song. Following prayer, Rev. Burke, acting chairman, directed the discussion of the new organization and the adoption of a name and election which followed.

In the evening service, Mr. Burke led the singing and Mr. Atkins brought another message in song, Rev. H. C. Van Warner, president of Allegheny Wesleyan Methodist Conference, brought a stirring message based on Romans 8:20. In closing, he invited all to join in prayer about the altar.

Carnahan-Falconer Rites Announced

Alice Falconer, daughter of J. W. Falconer, of Sugar Grove, RD 3, and Albert W. Carnahan, seaman first class in the U. S. Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Carnahan, of Rimersburg, were united in marriage at 3 p. m. Monday, January 8, at the Methodist parsonage in Rimersburg, Rev. Elroy Sayers performing the single ring ceremony.

Clara Belle Carnahan, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and Eugene E. Fye, of Strattonville, was best man. The bride wore a frock of royal blue accessories and a shoulder corsage of American beauty roses and chrysanthemums. The maid of honor wore black accessories with a blue ensemble and a shoulder corsage which matched the bride's.

A wedding dinner was served at six o'clock at the Carnahan home, a miniature bride couple topping the three-tiered wedding cake which centered the bride's table.

The bride was graduated from Union High School at Rimersburg in the Class of 1943 and expects to continue her work with the Warren Lamp Company.

Seaman Carnahan attended high school in Rimersburg before his enlistment in the coast guard. He has just returned after 26 months of overseas service and returned January 16 to the coast guard base at Cleveland, O.

WOMEN OF MOOSE ENJOY PROGRAM

Warren Chapter, Women of the Moose, held its regular meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday, with Senior Regent Augusta Anderson presiding. Because of bad weather conditions, the visitor from Bradford was unable to make the trip last week and advised the chapter she will come later. Three candidates were initiated to the credit of the friendship chairman, Bertha Sweeting. The attendance prize was awarded to Ruby Dyer and the next meeting was announced for February 7, with Mary McDonald in charge of supper.

For her chapter night program, Mrs. Sweeting presented a recitation by Mabel Crispinshaw; reading by Grace Miller, outlining the meaning and qualifications of the friendship degree; humorous musical numbers by Mrs. Crispinshaw; group singing of old family tunes. Concluding, her committee served refreshments.

GARNET LAUFFENBURGER SOON TO BE BRIDE

Mrs. Ralph Dey and Mrs. Albert Anderegg, of North Warren, announce the engagement of their sister, Miss Garnet Lauffenburger, to Dr. Peter C. Perris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Perris, of Brighton, Mass. Their wedding, which will take place in Boston, Mass., will be an event of the near future. Miss Lauffenburger, a graduate of W. C. A. Hospital in Jamestown, is now a private duty nurse in Brooklyn, while her fiancé, a graduate of Middlesex University in Boston, is a staff physician at Union Hospital in Brooklyn.

FAREWELL PARTY AT MOOSE HOME

Drivers of the Warren Baking Company staged a farewell party last night in the lounge room of the Moose Club. The affair was well arranged and a delightful lunch was served by Deb Lewis. Games and other entertainment passed the evening in a happy manner. "Jimmy" Cruickshank, of North Warren, who is leaving January 31 for U. S. service, was guest of honor and he was presented with a gift by the men present.

Rent Boosts Must Be Oked By Area Board

More rent increases have been authorized landlords who have substantially increased the services, furnishings or equipment in their rental properties than the total authorized under the 12 other adjustment provisions in OPA's Rent Regulations. Frank S. Anderson, Area Rent Director of the Erie and Warren County Defense-Rental Area announced today.

In processing the large volume of petitions under this provision, Anderson stated, it was found that misunderstanding existed among some of the landlords petitioning. Cases were found where a landlord had made an increase in the services or furnishings and immediately raising the rent before filing a petition requesting authorization of the increase. The petition must be filed and approval of the request increase given by OPA before the landlord can increase his rent.

"In many of the cases where a landlord has raised the rent before getting OPA's authorization," Mr. Anderson said, "the grounds on which he raised the rent were perfectly all right. I just want to make it clear that such a procedure is putting the cart before the horse. OPA must approve the rent increases before the landlord can charge it to his tenant."

"It is for the landlord's own protection as well that he secure approval of the increase before charging it to the tenant. Without that approval, he is subject to the penalties provided in the Emergency Price Control Act."

As an example of a substantial increase in services, Anderson cited the following. If a landlord since the maximum rent date took over the heating of a structure where before the tenant supplied the heat, that would entitle the landlord to ask OPA for an increase. Another would be where the landlord provides a garage where such was not previously furnished tenant.

Where such an increase is made, Anderson added, the landlord must have the consent of the tenant in occupancy to the increase, unless it is found that such an increase is necessary for the preservation or maintenance of the accommodation, or is required for the operation of a multiple dwelling structure or other structure of which the accommodations are a part.

"Death March" Survivor Has Some Harrowing Experiences

By SPENCER DAVIS

U. S. Bomber Wing Headquarters, Northern Luzon, Jan. 25—(P)—Haggard, footsore and hungry for American chow, the first survivor from the Bataan "Death March" to join his invading fellow countrymen on Luzon rested today after hiding from Japanese and living on rice for nearly three years.

He was Corp. Gerald G. Wade of Lewiston, Idaho, an army air corps mechanic. He passed through the American lines at an undisclosed point and was brought here by plane.

"It's too good to be true," Wade declared, as he stamped his feet, in borrowed shoes, on the steel matting of the airstrip.

The shoes and a bad stone bruise made him limp. He was chalky faced from malnutrition. He looked 15 years older than his 25 years. But he was happy—and hungry.

Wade told how he and other prisoners who were surrendered to the Japanese at Bataan, on southern Luzon, April 9, 1942, were mistreated and made to march 85 miles north to a prison camp.

"They laughed and jeered at us," he said. "Some of them bashed us on the heads with poles as they drove by in trucks."

"They reminded me of underdogs who finally had got the upper hand and didn't know how to act."

(An official account of the "death march," based on reports of survivors who escaped and made their way to the United States was given in a joint army-navy statement issued Jan. 27, 1944.)

Wade said all he had to eat was a rice cake slipped into his hand by a Filipino boy. "The Japs," he added, "opened our C rations and ate the sugar and chocolate and tossed the rest away. They would not allow us to pick it up."

"I've been living on rice for nearly three years," he commented, "and it gives you an appetite."

He devoured one meal of beef hash, potatoes, green beans and canned fruit and then finished a second of fried ham with four eggs, six buns, milk and chocolate bars.

"The third day after the surrender was the worst of all," Wade said. "We were forced to march 132 steps a minute while the sun was beating down on us and our clothes were soaking wet. Again we had no food nor water."

Japanese officers who enjoyed talking in English told Wade with sadistic glee, "Americans have good autos, good machines, but no fighting spirit. They have too much girls, too much parties."

"We chewed sugar cane," the corporal said. "It kept a lot of us going."

The Americans were loaded in small gauge freight cars until there was no longer room to breathe and hauled to Odenell where a concentration camp was being prepared.

"I got out early from Odenell," Wade said. "There were only three lookout towers then and for some season the water supply failed. Americans were sent out to fill cans of water. One day the radio operator—call him Gilbert—and I of Starbuck, and Mrs. Oscar Bergman of Youngsville, a few days last week.

Mrs. Sigvard Anderson has arrived from Liberal, Kan., and has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Nelson and is now visiting relatives in Jamestown. Her husband has left for overseas.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Falconer, Know you folks back home worry about your loved ones over here. I thought it might help you enjoy your Christmas to know your son is in good health and a credit to the service. May you have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Sincerely, Leonard B. Whitting, 1st Lieut., F. A. Their son, Raymond, is in this company and received this belated Christmas greeting only last week.

Mrs. Wendell Burgett, chairman of the March of Dimes, reports a collection of sixty-six dollars. L. T. Orner assisted with the collections at the Lander school and turned in about thirty-five dollars from there. Mrs. Doris Gray, teacher at Thompson Hill school, turned in ten dollars from that section. Others assisting were Mrs. Warner Beck and Mrs. Will Lyon. In the Lander school Mr. Orner donated a box of candy to the pupils in Mrs. Blanche McKinnis's room for turning in the highest collection.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stanton and Ronald Stanton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stanton of Frewsburg. Herbert Stanton, who has been visiting in Frewsburg, returned home.

Donny Burgett spent the weekend with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lewis, at Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Myles Porter and family spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Anderson, at Scandia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morrison and family of Busti visited Claus Carlson on Sunday.

Mrs. Edward Morrison of Busti spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hitchcock and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Falconer received a Christmas greeting last week from France as follows:

Mrs. Lyle Porter visited her sisters, Mrs. Clifford Scranton, were sent for water outside the barbed wire fence which was still being constructed. We dumped the cans and took off in broad daylight.

"I had been one of the few to escape malaria at Bataan but now it came. Some Filipinos helped carry me to a town where a guerrilla doctor could give me medicine."

"Then the Guerrillas took us back to their own barrio. Gilbert left me there for dead. I don't blame him. I would have done the same thing."

Wade said he was then taken to another barrio, which was one of the headquarters for the people's anti-Japanese army.

He lived with a family there for four months and then went into the mountains where he heard so Americans were living in a camp. But when he reached the camp he found most of the food was gone. So he roamed the hills and then returned to the village and lived for another year in the lowlands.

He learned his friend was killed by Ganaps, a pro-Japanese Filipino party.

Again he wandered through Pampanga province into Bulacan flatlands, and retraced his careful steps into the rugged Sambales mountains. There was no rest and little food. He kept moving.

Wade ended his story with a yawn, "but I'll sleep tonight, my first real sleep in three years."

BARNES

Barnes, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Gladys Kane and son, Thomas, and Mrs. John Fridley and children of Kane and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schuler and sons of Warren, spent Sunday as the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schuler.

Sgt. George McDonald returned to Barnes Monday, for another twenty-one day tour, which he is spending with his wife and their little daughter, at the home of Mrs. McDonald's mother, Mrs. John Knapp. Sgt. McDonald has spent the past three years in the Panama Canal Zone, but has now been re-assigned to a new outfit in Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Anna Chandler, Barnes' oldest citizen, now ninety-two years old, has for many years been interested in making scrap books and other articles used in educational and hospital work in the foreign missionary fields of her church. She has recently received acknowledgment of two boxes, one of which has already been sent to a missionary school in Africa. For this work, she uses old white linen and cotton rags, used greeting cards of all kinds and any bright colored pictures suitable for scrap books. She would greatly appreciate any such articles for this worthwhile work.

Miss Mary Alice Rudolph, who is employed in Warren, spent Sunday and Monday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rudolph.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Cook left for Erie Tuesday afternoon where they would be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Roberts and family for a week, before continuing on to Washington, D. C., to spend the remaining winter months at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Green and in visiting their other children living in the capital city.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Donahay and daughter, Jean, of Tiona, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brandt Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Lyautey and children of Highland were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brandt Sunday afternoon.

Ralph Bowley of the U. S. Navy arrived home Sunday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Bertha Bowley. Ralph has seen active duty in both theatres of war during the past two years. He has been a member of the crew of the U. S. S. Iowa, and had the interesting experience of being aboard when that ship carried so many notables to the Tehran conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Whitton were Jamestown visitors Monday. While Mr. Whitton was on a business mission, Mrs. Whitton visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Buck.

Mrs. Durward Clark, who for the past several months has been a laboratory technician at the Hamot Hospital in Erie, has rented an apartment in that city, and her mother, Mrs. F. J. Titus, and small daughter, Myra Lou Clark, went to Erie Saturday evening to live with her.

Mrs. W. C. Hover went to Corry Saturday evening where she will be the guest of her daughter, Miss Frances Hover, R. N.

First Lt. Bertrand R. Hover of Camp Chaffee, Ark., and Mrs. Hover and their small daughters, Ruth Ann and Carol Jean, of Reno, Pa., were guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hover, from Wednesday until Monday. Miss Rachel Barnes, R. N., of Warren, was a guest at that home Thursday, and Pvt. Frank Irvine of Camp Howie, Texas, and Mrs. Irvine, of Warren, were guests there Friday.

Mrs. Robert Curtin of Jamestown, N. Y., was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Curtin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stover entertained their bridge club at their home Saturday evening. Three

LANDER

Lander, Jan. 22.—The Foster Cemetery Society met with Mrs. Clara Burgett with sixteen members and two visitors present. The afternoon was spent placing a quilt. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Jay Cowles, who conducted devotions, with a prayer by Mrs. Harry Mahan. The Sunshine committee reported two members remembered with gifts from the club, Mrs. Harry Nelson and Mrs. Mitchell Mahan. Mrs. Henry Lindell read a letter from Mrs. Agnes Garfield of Conneaut, a former member. Flower collection amounted to sixty-six cents and a collection was taken for the March of Dimes. Mrs. Burgett served lunch. The February meeting will be held with Mrs. Ernest Stanton. The basketball game played with Russell at the Warren High School Friday evening was won by the Lander girls, 56-18, and Russell boys, 50-17.

The Young People's Sunday school class with their teacher, Mrs. Fred Ludwick, held a party for Phyllis Lindell, HA 1/c, Monday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lindell. Games were played and refreshments served. Miss Lindell was presented a gift. She left Tuesday for Sampson, N. Y., where

The Dukes five of the YMCA handed the North Warren School five a 44 to 23 lacing at the North Warren Community Building yesterday afternoon. The accurate shooting of the Dukes Dukes Shattuck and Kleshaier more than overcame the height of advantages of the North Warren players.

The first half was a nip and tuck affair with the Dukes dropping in a flurry of baskets near the end of the session to roll up a 20 to 12 lead. The second half saw the Dukes keep up the scoring spree started near the close of the first half enabling them to tuck away a decisive 44 to 23 win. Shattuck was high scorer for the Dukes with 18 points with Lee leading the Schoolers with 12 points.

The Dukes will play the North Warren team on the YMCA floor at 8:45 next Wednesday afternoon.

Plant Teams Win In YWCA Girls' Loop

In the girls' league campaign last night on the YWCA hardwood, the Struthers sextet downed the powerful Sylvanians, 30-22.

and in the second game, the National Forge took the New Process crew, 48-29.

The first game saw Joy, Rowland, and Mills combining their scoring efforts to down the electricians in a fast battle. Lindquist led the Sylvanians scorers with 12.

The Forge-New Process engagement kept the Forgers way out in front, holding down first place with no losses. Harner, Sheffer, and Black continued to pace the Forgers in their merry pace.

Next week, New Process and Sylvanians come together at 7:30 and Struthers take on the Thomas Coupling at 8:30.

State Boxing May Undergo Overhauling

Harrisburg, Jan. 25.—(P)—Boxing will undergo complete overhauling in Pennsylvania if bills now before legislature are enacted into law.

Under a measure submitted to the general assembly yesterday by Senator Louis M. Farrell (R-Philadelphia) the referee would be given an equal voice in all decisions along with the two judges.

The bill provides that all three officials vote and unless one of the boxers received two votes the bout would be declared a draw. Now the referee only votes if the two judges disagree.

Farrell also advocated acceptance of fines from promoters for infraction of the rules instead of the customary revocation or suspension of licenses by the commission.

Another measure proposed by Rep. James W. Hennihan (D-Luzerne) would change the boxing regulations to add small town promoters. The former boxing referee said he planned to introduce his measure at a later date.

Hennihan would make a change in the present five per cent state tax on boxing show tickets, now paid by the promoter, so that it can be passed on to the patrons.

Other amendments that Hennihan said may be included in his proposed bill would permit no decision fights, except in title matches, to remove the need for employing judges for every bout, and to permit promoters to select referees from their home towns, cutting down on travelling expenses.

Norman Angell, English economist, was born Ralph Norman Angell Lane.

Combining Game, Fish and Forestry Depts. Is Opposed

DuBois, Jan. 25.—(P)—Legislation proposing a merger of the state fish, game and forestry departments will be opposed by the North Central Division Federated Sportsmen's Association, the eight-county group announced today.

Copies of a resolution voicing this protest by sportsmen from Cameron, Center, Clearfield, Elk, Jefferson, McKean and Potter counties will be sent to Governor Edward Martin and legislators in the respective counties.

Another resolution adopted by the group objected to a contemplated move to reduce the game commission from eight members, representing the eight game divisions of the state, to six members to be taken from the state at large.

The federation re-elected its officers, including Archie J. Haines, St. Marys, president; Joseph H. Barclay, Punxsutawney, vice president; Ivan P. Haines, Duke Center, secretary, and William J. Munsell, Emporium, treasurer.

Teams Try To Oust 1st Place Fives at YMCA

The YMCA City basketball loop

resumes play after a week's absence when the Struthers and Blomquist quints begin operations at 7:30 tonight on the Y hardwood, and the Forgers stack up against the Sylvanians five.

The Bloms, having one win and a loss, are out to upset the league leading Wells' crew which suffered a 46-34 loss Tuesday night at the hands of the All-Stars. With the loss of Johnny Steinkamp, Manager Red Swanson has the services of Dick Finley and Dumps Peterson added to his lineup. Zerbe, Chase, Lord, and Frankowski will also be on deck to attempt to put the ironworkers back into the victory column.

The second card of the night brings together two equally matched clubs in the 8:30 game. The Sylvanians are also out to smash the first place post of the Forgers, who with the Struthers five hold down first place. The electricians have one win and a loss, but a loss for both Struthers and the Forge would put the Green and Whifers in top position. With Red Hand, Biers, and Bill Massa leading the way for Sylvanians, the Creola crew will have its hands full in taming their opponents.

The attendance at the Y games has increased a great deal since opening games, and the fans are well-satisfied with the results of the battles so, come on, Games at 7:30 and 8:30.

Corn Crib To Be Filled With Apples As Game Food

The Warren Field & Stream Club's corn crib will be filled with apples Saturday afternoon and sportsmen are urged to avail themselves of this fine game food and distribute it over the week end. This feeding of wild life is possible through the courtesy of John Allen, who donated the apples to the Club. There are approximately fifty bushels of these apples which were thrown out as unfit for market in his grading operation but they are solid and excellent for game feeding purposes.

Sportsmen of the county are fortunate indeed to secure such a large quantity of apples since practically all game in this area will feed on them. Even grouse, which are almost impossible to feed with grain since they are reluctant to eat it, will feed readily on apples—as will deer, rabbits, ringneck pheasants, and even squirrels.

Men who plan to feed game are reminded to place the apples on level twice above the snow line for deer and rabbits. Grouse will feed on them most anywhere but a feeding station constructed of bark or even evergreen boughs beneath "piercing of the Oder Line" was being exploited fully.

Moscow last night reported Rokossovsky's forces driving on Elbing on the Baltic and Danzig, steadily tightening the noose on East Prussia, as Gen. Ivan Cherniakovsky's Third White Russian Army to the east drove on Königsberg, its capital.

A decisive battle was reported by the Germans to be developing on the Polish front near Poznan, 137 miles east of Berlin. Nazi resistance there stiffened as Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's First White Russian army ploughed ahead in gains of up to 16 miles. The south elements of Konev's northern forces were close to a juncture with Zhukov's men between Grabow and captured Kallitz, a fortress city which fell after a four-day tank battle. Meanwhile other northern columns under Konev threatened to outflank Breslau 34 miles to the northwest with the capture of the Polish border town of Rawicz. Other Konev troops 48 miles southeast of Breslau have captured Oppeln, southern Silesian capital.

Battered regular army and Volksturm divisions were reported preparing for a street-to-street defense of Breslau, Germany's seventh city.

Pittsburgh and Buffalo ran hours late and trains were also behind schedule.

Cakes of ice jammed the Allegheny river below Franklin. Titusville said bus traffic northward was entirely suspended by the drifts formed by a 33-mile-an-hour wind. Four inches of snow accompanied zero temperatures there.

The thermometer registered two below zero at Bradford last night. Taxi cab service was suspended and bus schedules snarled because of constantly forming drifts.

Three inches of snow fell yesterday at Erie, collapsing roofs of two business buildings.

cent, he told a press conference. He said cotton duck should be stepped up 40 per cent.

Despite these needs, Somervell insisted that the Allies have enough supplies on hand in this theatre to mount an all-out offensive, should the Russian advance in the east make it desirable.

He said the western front gets first priority over the Pacific in matters of supply.

Deliveries of war materiel to Russia have not diminished since Gen. Eisenhower opened the western front, he said.

Stray Leaves From Notebook Of Reporter About Town

Mention was made in The Leaves the other evening of the stones used in setting the tires on wagon and buggy wheels and it was suggested that all of the stones had disappeared. However, Tracy Greenland called up and informed us that one of the wheels is still embedded in the ground near the Parrish Battery Shop. This stone was used by Gruber and Lauffer at their wagon shop. Here some of the best wagons ever turned out were manufactured and most of the work was done by hand. The wood in the wagons was well seasoned and most of it came from the woodland of the county. The hub, spokes and fellow of the wheels had to be strong and true to bear the burdens placed upon them and to withstand the jars due to the ruts in the roads. Many of the wagons were used in hauling oil and lumber and the roads were rutted and rough, many of them being corduroy roads through the swampy tracts into the woods. Hauling of boilers to oil wells was another big job that required the launching wagon wheels. When the snow cleared away and if you have never seen one of the stones in question it might be worth while to walk to lower Market street and have a look.

The Pittsburgh Motor Club has asked Governor Martin to extend the time for car inspections past the January 31st deadline, due to the rush at the garages and their inability to get cars in shape after the wracking they are taking on ice-rigged roads. George Horsfield, of the Automobile Repair Company here, echoes the idea for an extension. He is well posted on problems of inspection service and feels that an extension should be made. "The garages are simply unable to get all of the cars processed for the inspection. I find that all Warren garages are loaded with work. We are endeavoring to get out all cars possible and our men are working long hours. Cars driven by persons on war jobs must be in shape and we are co-operating in every way," said Mr. Horsfield this morning. The Warren Motor Club is expected to support the Pittsburgh Club's endeavors.

Talk about doubling up: Ash Wednesday comes on St. Valentine's Day and Easter falls on April Fool's Day. Many an old gal is going to be fooled by not getting a new Easter outfit. . . . How in heck a woman can dance and at the same time do the contortions that Alice Strickland does at the Outing Club is really something. . . . be a little easy shoveling snow, as the obituary columns of exchanges record many have died while engaged in this work. The crisp air urges a fellow to shovel fast and furious and gets the old pump working too hard. Slow and easy does the trick and even if a flu germ should freeze on you, it's better than flowers and slow music. . . . Dealers report more fur coats sold this year than ever in Warren's history. . . . Just goes to show that more women are working than ever before and that they are gratifying desires with their big pay. One gal in the office the other day gave the info that she is coping nine bucks per day in a local plant. . . . Boys with the wrenches had a busy time today getting the frozen pipes back into operation. . . . The old gas meters this morning merrily put forth with "Don't Fence Me In". . . . Those kids who worked long hours getting skating underway on Beatty court have sure had the co-operation of the weather man. No one else ever managed to produce artificial skating for so long a period. Those kids must live right.

Bus riders could do much themselves to speed up service in Warren. Two persons, for instance, really constitute a crowd when they stand in front of exit doors. Even one passenger in a strategic position in front of a door, slows up buses. Keep away from the doors. And before you leave the bus, be sure you have everything you had when you got on. Hundreds of parcels are left behind every year. And if you need a transfer, get it when you pay your fare, not when you're getting off.

Even while the mercury is down below zero and the streets are piled high with snow banks signs of spring are beginning to pile up. Seed catalogues are in the mail and the mail paper people are filling the mail boxes with samples; advertisements for summer camps are being received; farmers are being reminded that now is the time to order young trees from the State Nursery for spring planting in the woodlot. It is only six weeks until Easter and buyers for the stores have been hiking to New York for the spring stocks. Already spring hats and suits for women are appearing in the ads. It really won't be long now and Oh, how Dad will welcome a surprise from those big gas bills.

"Bill" Muir yesterday was recalling some of the fun he enjoyed in the eighties and nineties of Warren. His parents came to the city in 1887 and Bill has spent most of his life in the village. He recalled the fish market and store operated in a small building on Hickory street. Peter sold oysters and snucked them putting the shells in a barrel out in front of this place of business. One time a group of boys took five barrels of the shells to the home of Mike Mead and placed them on his porch, sans the barrels. The lads had to clean up the mess and incidentally got pinched. It might also be added that Elstrup sold most delicious jaw breakers (big balls of lemon flavored candy that made a kid look like a squirrel with a mouthful of nuts) two for a cent and most of the Sunday School pennies given the kids found repose in Elstrup's money drawer.

A new berth is being sought for Old Ironsides, officially known as the "Constitution." This historic fighting ship has been berthed in the Boston Navy Yard for the last ten years, but an insufficiency of space for the berthing of combat ships makes it necessary that a new resting place be found for Old Ironsides.

During the Christmas holidays, a bowler on Herman Mergerd's Cincinnati bowling lanes left a 5-10 split. . . . As he approached the foul line to deliver the second ball, Rusty, a full-grown boxer dog, galloped across the alley. . . . The ball was about 15 feet from the dog when the bowlers shouted "Look out, Rusty" and Rusty turned to face the source of all that noise. . . . The ball rolled right through both pairs of Rusty's legs and went on down to spill the two pins. . . . As a convincing touch of authenticity, Eli Whitney adds that about 20 bowlers who witnessed the incident had a round of drinks on Rusty's owner.

Experts Will Discuss Veterans Employment, Rehabilitation

One of the most important meetings of the Warren County Personnel Association will be held Wednesday, January 31 at the Y. W. C. A. The gathering will take the form of a dinner meeting, with dinner served at 6 o'clock. The topic for discussion will be "Veterans Re-employment and Rehabilitation" and it will bring to the city some experts on the plan. Among them will be William Igenfritz, Veteran Personnel Department and Mark Walter, Division of Rehabilitation, Harrisburg. There also promises to be other important speakers.

The discussion will be led by Sylvanus Davis, of the Warren United States Employment Service office, who has received much special training in the matter that will be considered.

All industrial heads and personnel workers interested are invited to attend and due to the fact that the seating capacity of the YWCA limits the gathering to 100 persons all who wish to attend must make reservations. This can be done by calling Clem Wolstencroft, personnel department at Struthers Wells, Phone 690. No reservations can be made later than Monday noon.
